JAP-A-RIC.

Jap-a-ric is best known as "the Silk that is guaranteed." It's not ordinary silk, but the Best, Purest, and Loveliest of Japanese manufacture. Every yard is stamped "Jap-a-ric," and is warranted to be of Supreme Excellence. The Guarantee is "Satisfaction or your Money Back." This is saying a lot, as no other silk is sold on this same conditions. Then—Jap-a-ric is strong as Jap-a-ric, the threads are perfectly even, and the vapers hand-finish is exquisite. It wears unusual, looks better, and washes better than any other. It will not bag, rub, or crush easily. The seams never break on the tucks and folds never rot. But to appreciate its loveliness and goodness you must see it, as we show Jap-a-ric in our windows. If you buy, and have cause to complain, your money will be returned.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

The Kaiser's youngest son and only daughter have been "decorated" by the Sultan of Turkey.

The opening by King Edward of the chapel of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, in St. Paul's Cathedral, in June, will take the form of a Full Dress State ceremonial.

Mr. Lloyd-George was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Liberation Society last night, and, improving dividends the Education Bill from the attacks of the bishops.

Judgment was given yesterday for the defendants in the action by a brewery company against the lessees of a tied house, where it was proposed to introduce the sale of alcoholic drink.

A correspondent says King Alfonso and Princess Ena yesterday paid a visit to Madame Tussaud's waxwork exhibition. An amusing incident occurred when the royal lovers were introduced to the wax models of Bonaparte, the young King shaking hands with his own effigy.

Mr. Thomas Mawhey, J.P., who was elected as Liberal candidate for the Arboretum Ward Board 19 years ago, and who has ever since been practically identified with educational work in the borough, delivered an interesting speech in support of the Education Bill to the members of the Arboretum Ward Liberal Association. Mr. Mawhey declared that the bill was of supreme importance and interest to all who were interested in education, and expressed the firm belief that the vast majority of the British people, were sick of the extreme religionists.

The Derby Town Council held a long Derby Town Council. ten-minutes' discussion yesterday afternoon, the principal business transacted being the adoption of a Parliamentary Bill. Before the Council proceeded to the consideration of the Education Bill, it was resolved that the Council should be represented on behalf of the Corporation at the hearing in the House of Commons of the Bill. The Council then proceeded to the consideration of the Bill, and
