BHS Kent
Road & Rider Awareness Evening

The British Horse Society

BHS Kent Committees invite you to a FREE Road and Rider Safety Awareness Evening

Thursday 25th October 2018 - 7pm

Crundale and Godmersham Village Hall, Godmersham, CT4 7DR
(on the A28 between Chilham and Ashford)

This will be a very informative evening with expert guest speakers including, Alan Hiscox – Director of Safety at the British Horse Society; Tim Ryan - Partner from leading Kent law firm, Warners; Steve Horton - Casualty Reduction Manager for Kent County Council and Communications Manager for Road Safety GB and Kent County Police Rural Division. Learn about the 'Dead Slow' and 'Be Nice Say Hi to Cyclists' campaigns - helping to educate drivers/cyclists to pass horses safely. Find out how to obtain evidence, what to do with it, the legal side of the Highway Code and legal obligations. Talk about Head Cams—are they a good idea and find out how to report incidents to the Police using helmet cams.
