Be it remembered that on the 19th day of January in the 1st year of the reign of lady Elizabeth by the grace of God queen of England, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. came here in court Robert Sparrowe of Ipswyche in county Suffolk in person, and recognized himself to owe the said lady queen £10 of good and lawful money of England, to be paid to the same lady queen, her heirs or executors, at Easter next after the date of these presents; and grants for him and his heirs that the same £10 may be levied from his goods, lands and chattels to the use and behoof of the said lady queen, into whoever's hands they may have come.

Suffolk

William Whetecrofte gentleman and Geoffrey Cage in person sought from Robert Sparrowe a messuage, two curtilages and a garden with appurtenances in Ipswich, as their right and inheritance, and in which the same Robert has no entry except after the disseisin that Hugh Hunt made thereof unjustly and without judgment from the aforesaid William and Geoffrey within thirty years now last past &c. And wherein they say they themselves were seised of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances in their demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the now lady queen, taking thence issues to the value &c. and

And the aforesaid Robert comes in person, and defends his right when &c.; and calls therein to warrant John Hawes, who is present here in court in person; and he freely warrants the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances to them &c. And thereupon the aforesaid William and Geoffrey seek from the said John, holding by his warrant, the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances in form aforesaid &c. And wherein they say they themselves were seised of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances in their demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the now lady queen, taking thence issues to the value &c. and in which &c.; and therein bring their suit &c.

And the aforesaid John comes in person, and defends his right when &c.; and calls therein to warrant Laurence Hawes, who is present here in court in person; and he freely warrants the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances to them &c. And thereupon the aforesaid William and Geoffrey seek from the said Laurence, holding by his warrant, the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances in form aforesaid &c. And wherein they say they themselves were seised of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances in their demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the now lady queen, taking thence issues to the value &c. and in which &c.; and therein bring their suit &c.

And the aforesaid Laurence comes in person, and defends his right when &c.; and calls therein to warrant John Atkynson, who is present here in court in person; and he freely warrants the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances to them &c. And thereupon the aforesaid William and Geoffrey seek from the said John Atkynson, holding by his warrant, the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances in form aforesaid &c. And wherein they say they themselves were seised of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances in their demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the now lady queen, taking thence issues to the value &c. and in which &c.; and therein bring their suit &c.

Et p^d'cus Joh'es Atkynson' tenens p^r War' suam defend' ius suu' quando &c' Et dic' q'd p^d'cus Hugo non disseis' p^rfat' Will'm & Galfr'm de ten't' p^d'cis cum p^rtin' put ijdem Will's & Galfr'us p^r br'e & narrac'onem sua p^d'ca supius suppon' Et de hoc pon' se sup p^riam &c'

And the aforesaid John Atkynson, holding by his warrant, defends his right when &c. and says that the aforesaid Hugh did not disseise the aforesaid William and Geoffrey of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances as the same William and Geoffrey have supposed above by their writ and statement aforesaid; and of this he puts himself upon the country &c.

Et p^d'ci Will's & Galfr'us pet' licenciam inde int^rloquendi Et h'ent &c' Et postea ijdem Will's & Galfr'us reuen' hic in Cur' isto eodem T^rmi'o in pprijs psonbis suis Et p^d'cus Joh'es Atkynson' licet solempnit^r exact' non reuen' set in contemptum Cur' recessit & defalt' fac' I'o cons' est q'd p^d'ci Will's & Galfr'us recupent sei'am suam v^rsus p^rfat' Rob'tum de ten't' p^d'cis cum p^rtin' Et q'd idem Rob'tus h'eat de t^rra p^d'ci Joh'is Hawes ad valenciam &c' Et q'd idem Joh'es vltⁱus h'eat de t^rra p^d'ci Laurencij ad valenciam &c' Et q'd idem Laurencius vltⁱus h'eat de t^rra

And the aforesaid William and Geoffrey craved licence of interlocution thereon, and they have &c. And afterwards the same William and Geoffrey came back here in court this same term in person; and the aforesaid John Atkynson, although solemnly exacted, has not come back, but has withdrawn himself in contempt of court, and made default. Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid William and Geoffrey recover their seisin against the aforesaid Robert of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances; and that the same Robert have from the land of the aforesaid John Hawes to the value &c.; and further that the same John shall have from the land of the aforesaid Laurence to the value &c.; and further that the same Laurence shall have from the land of the aforesaid John Atkynson to the value &c.; and the same John in mercy &c. And thereupon the aforesaid William and Geoffrey craved a writ of the lady queen to cause them to have full seisin of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances; and it is returnable here on the octaves of Candlemas &c. On which day here come the aforesaid William and Geoffrey in person; and the sheriff, to wit, Ambrose Jermyn knight, now reports that he, by virtue of that writ directed to him, on the 3rd day of February last past caused the aforesaid William and Geoffrey to have full seisin of the tenements aforesaid with appurtenances, as had been ordered him by that writ &c.
