

On Monday 2nd January 2017, Brian Iles led a morning walk at the Knapp and Papermill Reserve, Alfrick Pound to view the areas recently acquired by Worcestershire Wildlife Trust.

Around 20 people turned up on a cold but sunny morning to burn off some of the New Year excesses. This photo was taken in the orchard.

