

Play Park Celebration Day

Official Opening of Colinton Mains Playgrounds & Community Planting

Monday 22nd November 2010 1.30p.m

Two new exciting play areas have been added to Colinton Mains Park. A children's play area for 3 to 12 year olds and a separate area for local teenagers to have as a place of their own, to meet and throw or kick a ball about.

Children from St Mark's R C Primary Eco Committee, Oxgangs Primary along with local people from the Lochan Residents Association, Oxgangs Care, Firrhill Community Council and our local Councilor Eric Barry were on hand to celebrate the opening of the play areas and plant some 5000 Daffodils that will provide an annual display of colour to the Park.

The children's play area was funded by The City of Edinburgh Council, Services for Communities, Parks and Greenspace, and Waste Recycling Environmental Limited (WREN).

The teenage play area was installed by Dunedin Canmore Housing Association.

Hot drinks and biscuits were supplied by Oxgangs Neighbourhood Centre.

Issue dates- February, May, October 2011

Community Bulb Plant

Although there are still a number of outstanding issues, the flood defence work is hopefully coming to an end and consideration has been given to replacing some of the plantation that was destroyed during this project. Consultations, facilitated by Firrhill Community Council, were held with Carillion to discuss how, what and where it was best to replace some of the planting and that work is being progressed.

We now have an Orchard at the start of Firrhill Drive and three fir trees; although one is to be replaced as it has not survived the snow!

Bulb planting was supposed to be done at the end of November but we all know what came instead! Undaunted by the arctic conditions in January, a brave group of local people and A4E supervisor Iain Boettcher and his team planted 7000 mixed bulbs of daffodils, bluebells, snowdrops and tulips, between the Lochan and the Orchard.

We look forward to seeing the fruits of their labour and hope that it inspires you to get involved with upcoming environmental events, the first of which is to invite you to an Environmental Get Together on Thursday 24th March, 2p.m in Oxgangs Neighbourhood Centre 71 Firrhill Drive

Website Upgrade

Firrhill Community Council are seeking to establish and maintain an economic communications strategy with the community it serves, the local council (CEC), its councillors and officers, and other relevant bodies in order to pursue its purpose and support its objectives, as well as responding to issues facing the community, both known and emerging. An essential tool in the processing of that strategy is the Community Council's website. Through the website, Firrhill Community Council hope to keep those, who live and work within its area, informed of activities and events taking place within its locality and of proposed works and developments that may affect the area in which they live or do business. To meet these aspirations the website has been designed to provide the following information and communication pages:

A 'Home' page to introduce the Council, provide information on when we meet and contacts details for our Chairperson and Secretary. Consultations and other items of interest will be promoted on this page.

The 'About Us' and 'About the Area' pages provide information on our statutory purpose and membership and build up a profile of the area that we represent. One of our aims will be to develop a historical profile of Colinton Mains, Firrhill and Oxgangs, so if any historian out there is interested in contributing to this – feel free to send in information or data.

The 'News' and 'Calendar' pages are for the purpose of posting new information that may be of interest to those who live in the community or is relevant to their welfare. If you have any information that you consider meets those criteria, please let us know and we will insert the information here.

The 'Minutes and Documents' page is our depository for those documents which provide a record of our meetings and of the business papers discussed at those meetings and which we are required to make available to the community.

The 'Guestbook' page facilitates the Community Council requirement to "ascertain the views of the community which it represents" and provides a simple method of obtaining feedback from the community, whether in response to a consultation or on a matter of interest to the individual.

Consultations

This page lists current and past consultations in which the Community Council has been involved over recent years. Underlying pages provide information on these consultations for your information. If you have any comments to make regarding any of the projects, please inform us. Information is also included in the minutes of the Community Council meetings as well as those held by other stakeholders.

Current Projects

Oxgangs Avenue - Proposed Parking Restrictions: Consideration is being given to the introduction of 24/7 double yellow line waiting restrictions at road junctions with a single line restriction on the south side of the road from Monday to Saturday between the hours of 8:00 am and 6:00 pm. Actual details of the proposals are contained in the attached drawings.

The sidebar also lists other pages: Home, About us, About the area, News, Calendar, Minutes & Reports, Guestbook, Consultations (highlighted), Cockmylane2010, Colinton Mains Park, Colinton Mains Park Pavilion, Flood Defence Work, Useful Info, Contact us, and Links.

Basically it is for use where the individual is not looking for a service but simply expressing an opinion, possibly in response to information on the website or some other local matter. The sender does not need to identify themselves (although it may be helpful to the Council if they did). Messages will be checked before they are displayed on the website to ensure they meet acceptable standards for publication.

The 'Enquiries' page also facilitates communication with the community, however, it is for use when people are making an enquiry and therefore looking for a response. They need to provide some contact information in order that we can respond to them directly.

That completes our tour of the website and we hope it will be of some interest to you and you will visit it regularly at the address below. If you have ideas or opinions in regard to the design of the website or on the information held, please let us know. The website's function is important to us and your feedback will help us to continue to improve on this and attract visitors to the site.

Welcome

Firrhill Community Council would like to welcome you to our website and hope you will find the information you are seeking within its pages. The use of the website as a community activity resource is important to us, if you have any comments to make or consider we have omitted any activity or event, please tell us.

The Community Council is an elected group of people (all volunteers) with an interest in the well-being of the Colinton Mains, Firrhill and Oxgangs area of Edinburgh. Our role is to represent the community and relay residents' views to the elected members and officers of the City of Edinburgh Council and other bodies. We in turn are consulted by the Local Authority on matters affecting our neighbourhood.

Consultations

A Sense of Belonging: Joint Mental Health and Wellbeing Strategy 2011-2016

NHS Lothian is consulting on this draft strategy which sets out the vision to improve mental health and wellbeing across Lothian over the next 5 years. It has been drawn up in consultation with many groups from NHS Lothian, Local Authorities, voluntary sector organisations together with service users and carers. The strategy looks at all stages of life. NHS Lothian would welcome your views on this draft document, which will inform the final strategy. The full strategy document, the summary document and the online survey are on NHS Lothian website. If you would like a copy posted to you please phone 0131 465 5545. The consultation closes on 4 March 2011.

The City of Edinburgh Council has produced a draft five-year strategy for the way it plans, buys and delivers care and support services. Commissioning Strategy. Please note that the consultation on the draft Commissioning Strategy and the draft Commissioning Plan for Adult Services has been extended until Friday 4 March 2011 to give all organisations and individuals the opportunity to have a say. See the website for further information and how you can send in your views online. You can also request a printed copy of the strategy documents and feedback form by contacting 0131 553 8314.

Supporting Parents and Carers in South West, SPACE

Launch 26 January 2011

(to offer parents and carers support, advice and information)

To launch this multi agency approach an event was held at Pentland Community Centre.

60 representatives attended the event from NHS Lothian; Children and Families including staff from Schools, Community Learning and Development, Libraries, the Army Welfare Service, Lothian Borders Police and the Voluntary sector. The event was aimed at updating and informing staff on the development of the SPACE model in the SW; exchanging information on training and resources; identifying gaps for developing parent support. Speakers from the GIRFEC team and Family Community Support set the context for discussion. The day provided a good opportunity for information sharing, discussion and networking.

Parent Information Points will be established by March 2011 within Oxgangs, Balerno and Ratho Libraries.

Oxgangs Library 20th Happy Birthday

A rather belated 20th Birthday celebration, which was actually on the 29th November 2010, my how the time has flown. This event had to be rescheduled to Friday 4th February 2011, 2-4pm due to the Arctic conditions we had to endure last year, but better late than never. Firrhill Community Council provided the prizes for the Poetry Competition, 'A sense of home...' which helped celebrate the launch of the "Community Connections" hub, plus promote the new "Parent Information Point". It was great to see the library buzzing with people of all ages, and a great sign that books and libraries are still very much alive and kicking. Contact Oxgangs Library on 529 5549 or oxgangs.library@edinburgh.gov.uk for more details.
