What is the Festival of Culture?

The Nation is gearing up for the London 2012 Olympic Games. That's why across Dacorum, a festival, celebrating our culture will showcase the arts, sport, heritage and leisure in the Borough. We hope to encourage everyone to get involved and celebrate the Olympic and Paralympic Games.

A programme of new, funded events together with some established favourites is planned to take place between June 2011 and December 2012.

Together they can have real impact and make a sustainable difference to the wellbeing of the whole community. A central aim of the programme is to support health and exercise programmes, assist learning, and personal development, involve the public in arts and local heritage and utilise our public facilities and open spaces.
