Intro: 1.2.1.2.3.4. (last two lines of chorus) [C] /// [C#dim] /// [G] /// [E7] /// [A7] /// [D7] /// [G] /// [D7] ///

[G] Joe and [C#dim] Jane were [G] always together, said
Joe to [C#dim] Jane "I [G] love summer weather, so
[D7] let's go to that beautiful sea, follow along, [G] say you're with me!"
Any-[C#dim]thing that [G] Joe would suggest to her,
Jane would [C#dim] always [G] think it was best for her
[D7]* So he'd [D7]* get his Ford, [D7]* Holler [D7]* "all aboard"
[A7] Gee I want to [D7] be."

Chorus: [G] By the [D7] sea, by the sea, by the beautiful sea,
You and [G] me, you and me, oh! how happy we'll be,
When each wave comes a-[D7] roll-[C#7]ing [D7] in, we will [D7] duck [C#7] or [D7] swim,
And we'll [G]* float and fool around the water [D7] over and under, and then up for air.
Pa is [G] rich, ma is rich, so now what do we [G7] care?
[C] I love to [C#dim] be beside your [G] side beside the [E7] sea,
Beside the [A7] seaside. [D7] by the beautiful [G] sea. [D7]

[G] Joe was [C#dim] quite a [G] sport on a Sunday, then
He would [C#dim] eat gray [G] lox on a Monday, and [D7] Jane would lose her millionaire, and go to work, [G] marcelling hair,
Ev'ry [C#dim] Sunday [G] he'd leave his wife at home,
And say "It's [C#dim] bus'ness, [G] honey, I've got to roam,"
[D7]* Then he'd [D7]* miss his train, [D7]* get his [D7]* Ford and Jane,
[A7] And say "Come with [D7] me."

Chorus: [G] By the [D7] sea, by the sea, by the beautiful sea,
You and [G] me, you and me, oh! how happy we'll be,
When each wave comes a-[D7] roll-[C#7]ing [D7] in, we will [D7] duck [C#7] or [D7] swim,
And we'll [G]* float and fool around the water [D7] over and under, and then up for air.
Pa is [G] rich, ma is rich, so now what do we [G7] care?
[C] I love to [C#dim] be beside your [G] side beside the [E7] sea,
Beside the [A7] seaside. [D7] by the beautiful [G] sea. [G7]

Outro:[C] I love to [C#dim] be beside your [G] side,
Beside the [E7] sea, beside the [A7] seaside,
[D7] By the beautiful [G] sea. /// [D7] [G]
