

Looks bleak , but it is lovely with the purple heather at the moment

A shower had come on while we walked.

The letter box in Wanlockhead

LOCHNELL MINE 1710 - 1860

The entrance to the Lead Mine which you can visit. Tickets are available from the Visitor Centre where there is also a little Museum and the Miners' Lending Library near-by.

A sculpture named "Closer"
in the small garden area near the Visitor Centre

The view from the little path through the village behind the Visitor Centre entirely at owners risk

NO OVERNIGHT PARKING

NO GOLD PANNING IN THIS AREA

A notice beside the burn at the Visitor Centre. Several people were panning for gold in the Mennock Water which runs through the pass