Worship Today

Tetbury      10.30am      Benefice Holy Communion
(The Revd Poppy Hughes, Rector)

Prayers for this Sunday

Almighty Father, who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Living God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in all his redeeming work; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

REQUESTS AND THANK YOUS

Christian Aid Week 14 – 20 May Over the past three years the number of collectors for the house to house collection which takes place during the course of the week has dropped from 92 to 50! This means that this year many of the roads in Tetbury and complete villages around Tetbury can no longer be covered. There is a list at the back of each church stating which roads and villages need a collector. Please, please, can you help? If you are already collecting and think that you have the time and energy to cover another road your offer would be much appreciated. In either case just get in touch with me Alison Hesketh, It would be a real shame if, as the suffering in the world increases, the help we feel able to give diminishes.

Christian Aid Week Collectors. Your supplies are at the back of the church. Please take them and also take for anyone who lives near you who is not here today. This will be a great help as it will save me delivering. Many thanks. Alison.

Thank you! A big thank you to whoever left a book for me in the pigeon holes! It was kind of you - but I don't know who you are! Please let me know, so I can thank you in person! Lorna Dallimore

On behalf of all the family of Daniel Marks-Bryan, 'Dan', we would love to thank everyone at St Marys' who have given us so much love, support and prayers. It has helped us get through such a difficult year, your kindness has meant so much to us all. Thank you Di Bryan

A really big thank you to everybody who have sent their prayers, kind wishes, and gifts during my ongoing cancer treatment, which have been really appreciated. I have been overwhelmed with the kindness shown not only from St Marys' but work colleagues, friends and relations. Mike, Noah and I are so grateful for everybody's prayers and especially to the anonymous parish well wisher who sent me a very large cheque, which will really help as I have had to take a year off work. Thank you so much for keeping us all in your thoughts and prayers. Kate, Mike and Noah

Third Sunday of Easter

First Reading

Zephaniah 3.14 - end.

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away the judgements against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it.

Second Reading

Acts 2.14a,36-41

On the day of Pentecost, Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, 'Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.' Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, 'Brothers, what should we do?' Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.' And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.' So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added to their number.

Gospel

Luke 24.13-35

On that same day, two of the disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' Jesus asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see Jesus.' Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Jesus; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.
