Definitions:
Play: Often used as an incorrect colloquialism for 'strike'. 'Play' often is used to means an action intended to be a 'stroke' but is usually a ' wrong ball play ' ( not a 'stroke')	Stroke: a correct action by the correct player striking a correct ball.	Stroke: Commences when the striker , is in their stance, touches a ball with the mallet. Finishes when the striker " leaves their stance under control " 13(a)	Strike - Striking: "The striker strikes the strikers ball" Rule 6(a)

GC Rule13(a) states: "A stroke finishes when the striker leaves their stance under control" - this means different things to different people. AC Law 5(f) "The striking period ends when the striker quits his stance under control---". ORLC 5.8.3 "There are three cases where the striker is not "under control"

- (a) jumping to avoid a moving ball;
- (b) playing in an off balance position and falling out of the stance;

(c) disturbing a ball he was trying to avoid when leaving a stance restricted (or changed) because of the presence of another ball.”
