

June - August 2013

Buckingham Festival of Ecology

The British Ecological Society is celebrating its Centenary this year with a Festival of Ecology, which runs from 15th June to 4th August 2013. During these eight weeks The Conservation Volunteers will be running a fun-filled programme of nature and wildlife activities in Buckingham. These activities will be held in some of the wonderful variety of green spaces within Buckingham town including The Railway Walk and the Sand Pit Nature Reserve.

Call us on 01296 330 033 or email buckingham@tcv.org.uk for more information.

Learn about Trees and Bees and get tips from an expert wildlife photographer.

Get the opportunity to meet live Owls and see evidence of the Ice Age in Buckingham.

Build habitats for bugs and mini beasts, homes for birds and bats, go pond dipping and hunt for dragonflies.

- All events are FREE to attend.
- No need to book.
- The activities may be suitable for children as young as 4 years old, through to young people and adults of all ages.
- For outdoor activities, please dress appropriately for the conditions.
- Children must be accompanied by adults.

For further information on our organisation and the events we run in your area please see www.tcv.org.uk
