Photos taken during our walk along Gaywood River to Kings Lynn

Gaywood Valley Conservation Group
24 April 2017
Niki gives us a brief on our walk

Walking along the Gaywood River after coming along Swan lane
Another view of the river just after the end of Swan lane.
A view of the river before reaching Kettlewell Lane

A straightened stretch of the river near Kettlewell Lane
Walking along the track before we get to Kettlewell Lane

Water Lilies in the pond adjacent to Kettlewell Lane
At the Kettlewell lane site, looking at how it was looking now after a couple of years since we worked on the site.
Unidentified plants growing near the wall

Another view of the Kettlewell Lane site
Views of some of the old hoses behind St Nicholas Chapel
The Exorcists House

Beautiful Shield bug which dropped from an overhanging tree
The Diamond Heart
“The witch’s heart”

Statue of George Vancouver
In the old part of the town just beyond the Minster
Walking along the Purfleet

The Gatehouse remains of the Carmelite Friary