Pathway becoming overgrown with nettles

Lots of umbellifers and thistles
Nettle growth in one of the hawthorn glades

Cutting down lots of nettles next to one of the paths
Mass of umbellifers and other vegetation waiting to be worked on

In one of the glades which we had previously cleared
Tea break time

Relaxing under a tree after our teas
Clearing nettles alongside the path to the first set of steps

Everyone hard at work
Vipers Bugloss
