Next Traditional Latin Mass

3:00 p.m. on Sunday 10 December
2nd Sunday of Advent

The celebrant will be Dom Jonathan Rollinson OSB of Belmont Abbey. Our first Mass at St Wulstan's on 26 November was Dom Jonathan's first ever Missa Cantata and we are very grateful for the considerable effort he has put into learning the priest's chants, including particular long readings, for the Mass.

Nota bene: There will be NO Traditional Latin Mass at St Wulstan's on Sunday 24 December. The first Traditional Latin Mass of AD 2018 is planned to be on Sunday 14 January – 2nd Sunday after Epiphany.

St Wulstan's Parish

Details of parish life, including contact details together with Mass and other service times, can be found on the parish website: <http://www.saint-wulstans.org.uk/>.

St Wulstan's Christmas Cards

Christmas cards depicting the nativity scene from one of the beautiful stained glass windows in the Lady Chapel at St Wulstan's are currently on sale. Proceeds are principally to raise funds for the restoration of the pipe organ. The cards can be ordered online at: www.christmascardsinaidofstwulstanschurch.com

Jams & Chutneys for Sale

A great benefit of being associated with a parish is that we can both contribute to and benefit from parish life. A tasty aspect of life at St Wulstan's is the home-made jams and chutneys sold in aid of church funds and which can be found at the back below the organ.

Ordinary Prayers of the Traditional Latin Mass

The Latin Mass Society has generously donated 25 copies of their recently updated Ordinary Prayers of the Traditional Latin Mass. These will be available to borrow from the table at the back of the church. Other LMS publications are available from their online shop.
