No Traditional Latin Mass at St Wulstan's on Sunday 17 December

It has not proved possible to arrange an extra Traditional Latin Mass on Sunday 17 December. It appears we are still awaiting completion of some formal paperwork which is needed for Dom Jonathan to celebrate Mass for us on a regular basis. Next TLM at St Wulstan's is planned for Sunday 14 January: see details below.

St Egwin was an English nobleman who became bishop of Worcester in AD 692. Charged with being overly strict by his clergy, Egwin went to Rome. Upon his return to England, and prompted by a vision of Our Blessed Lady, he founded Evesham Abbey with the aid of Coenred, King of Mercia. In AD 709, Egwin returned to Rome, accompanied by King Coenred and King Offa of the East Saxons. (To learn more about this local saint see the short article in Early British Kingdoms.)

More Servers wanted

We can never have too many servers, but – as the young man on the right illustrates – it is possible sometimes to have too few, especially for a Missa Cantata. Can you serve or are you interested in learning?

Please contact us if you'd like to be added to our list of men and boys available to serve from time to time.

Latin Mass Society

The Latin Mass Society, founded in 1965, is an association of Catholic faithful dedicated to the promotion of the traditional Latin liturgy of the Catholic Church, the teachings and practices integral to it, the musical tradition which serves it, and the Latin language in which it is celebrated. The Society provides invaluable help and encouragement to groups – including ours – in establishing and maintaining Traditional Latin Mass centres.

If you are not yet a member, then you might like to consider joining and supporting their work. More details can be found on their Membership page. The local LMS representative is Alastair Tocher (contact details below).
