Can you serve or are you interested in learning?

We can never have too many servers on our rota, but – as the young man on the left illustrates – it is possible sometimes to have too few, especially for a Missa Cantata, and we do occasionally have difficulty in finding enough for Mass.

Please contact us if you'd like to be added to our list of men and boys willing to serve from time to time.

Belmont Abbey Retreat: “Plainsong & Prayer” – Fri 4 – Sun 6 May

Abbot Paul Stonham of Belmont Abbey is once again offering an opportunity to learn to sing the melodies of Gregorian Chant that belong at the heart of the Church’s worship. Everyone, whether experienced or having little or no knowledge of the chant, will be very welcome. Just bring enthusiasm to sing and a desire to pray.

Registration Fee £28. Accommodation may be available. For full details see Belmont Abbey’s Retreat Brochure.

“Lux et umbra vicissim sed semper lumen Christi” †

All of the recent sermons – including last Sunday’s referring to the sundial at Belmont Abbey – are now available on the sermons page of the website. Links are also provided to the readings of the day, in English, for easy cross-reference.

†: “Light and shade alternate, but always the light of Christ.”
