Schola Gregoriana Malvernensis & Schola Parva

Looking for something new to do in 2019? Our two Scholas are always on the lookout for new singers, whatever your level of experience. The Schola Gregoriana Malvernensis rehearses on Wednesday evenings and before Mass and sings both Gregorian Chant and polyphony on 4th Sundays; the Schola Parva (The “Little Schola”) meets to rehearse only before Mass on 2nd Sundays and sings only Gregorian Chant.

If you’re interested in either Schola – or both – do get in touch.

Can you serve or are you interested in learning?

We can never have too many servers on our rota, but – as the young man on the right illustrates – it is possible sometimes to have too few, especially for a Missa Cantata, and we do occasionally have difficulty in finding enough for Mass.

Please contact us if you’d like to be added to our list of men and boys willing to serve from time to time. If you haven’t served before, or if it’s been a while, then don’t worry: on-the-job training can be provided. (See also the Society of St Tarcisus Server Training Day above.)

The Latin Mass Society, founded in 1965, is an association of Catholic faithful dedicated to the promotion of the traditional Latin liturgy of the Catholic Church, the teachings and practices integral to it, the musical tradition which serves it, and the Latin language in which it is celebrated. The Society provides invaluable help and encouragement to groups – including ours – in establishing and maintaining Traditional Latin Mass centres.

If you are not yet a member, then you might like to consider joining and supporting their work. More details can be found on their Membership page. The local LMS representative is Alastair Tocher (contact details below).
