More Traditional Latin Masses coming soon!

I have been in discussion for some months regarding extending Traditional Latin Mass provision at St Wulstan's to substantially every Sunday. This will be achieved with the invaluable support of Can. Amaury Montjean of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest (ICKSP) who has agreed that Can. Scott Smith ICKSP will supply on odd-numbered Sundays from their existing mission in Shrewsbury. My intention is that so far as is possible all Masses will be sung.

Detailed arrangements for this have been approved by Dom Edward Crouzet (parish priest), His Grace Archbishop Bernard Longley, and await only approval from the General Chapter of the ICKSP at the end of August. I currently expect the new arrangements to begin from either mid- to late September.

N.b. From then onwards and in order to accommodate the 1hr 45 min. travel time from Shrewsbury, Masses will begin marginally later at 3:15 p.m. each Sunday. I shall re-highlight this change nearer the time.

Society of St Tarcisius Server Training – 20 Jul, 10 Aug & 14 Sep

The Society of St Tarcisius – the society for altar servers for the Traditional Roman Rite – is holding a training days:

- 20 July at English Martyrs, Preston;
- 10 August at St Augustine's, Oxford; and
- 14 September at St Mary, Moorfields, London.

Men and boys will learn all roles for Low Mass and Sung Mass, and also High Mass if there is demand. There will also be a chance for those attending to be enrolled in the Society of St Tarcisius and be promoted from grade to grade.

Booking is required, so that the organisers have an accurate idea of numbers attending and what they wish to learn. There is no fee. For full details see the St Tarcisius website.

Can you serve or are you interested in learning?

We can never have too many servers on our rota, but – as the young man on the right illustrates – it is possible sometimes to have too few, especially for a Missa Cantata, and we do occasionally have difficulty in finding enough for Mass.

Please contact us if you'd like to be added to our list of men and boys willing to serve from time to time. If you haven't served before, or if it's been a while, then don't worry: training at a time to suit you could be organised. (See also the Society of St Tarcisius Server Training Day above.)

Schola Gregoriana Malverniensis & Schola Parva

Looking for something new to do? Our two related Scholas are always on the lookout for new singers, whatever your level of experience. The Schola Gregoriana Malverniensis rehearses on Wednesday evenings and before Mass and sings both Gregorian Chant and polyphony on 4th Sundays; the Schola Parva (The "Little Schola") meets to rehearse only before Mass on 2nd Sundays and sings only Gregorian Chant.

If you're interested in either Schola – or both – do get in touch.

Accountability

It is common practice in many parishes to publish details of Mass Attendance and Offertory Collections in the weekly bulletin. The corresponding information for Masses organised by Extraordinary Malvern is available in graphical form on the website. See the "Accountability" page for current details.

Our first "Annual Report" is also now available on the website.

The Latin Mass Society, founded in 1965, is an association of Catholic faithful dedicated to the promotion of the traditional Latin liturgy of the Catholic Church, the teachings and practices integral to it, the musical tradition which serves it, and the Latin language in which it is celebrated. The Society provides invaluable help and encouragement to groups – including ours – in establishing and maintaining Traditional Latin Mass centres.
