Gaudium magnum: weekly Traditional Latin Mass has arrived at St Wulstan's!

I am delighted to confirm that beginning on Sunday 8 September there will be a Missa Cantata at St Wulstan's, Little Malvern every Sunday. Note that all Masses will begin at the slightly later time of 3:15 p.m. It is also hoped to offer refreshments after Mass each Sunday.

Typically Masses on 2nd and 4th Sundays will continue to be celebrated by Dom Jonathan Rollinson OSB (Belmont Abbey) whilst the additional Masses on the remaining Sundays will be celebrated by Can. Scott Smith ICKSP who is based at St Winifride's, Shrewsbury. Can. Smith's first visit to St Wulstan's will therefore be on Sunday 15 September.

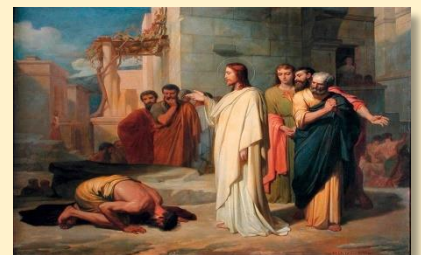

We are very grateful not only to Dom Jonathan and Can. Smith for coming to celebrate Mass for us but also for the support and encouragement we have received from the parish priest, Dom Edward Crouzet OSB (Downside), from Can. Amaury Montjean ICKSP, and from Archbishop Bernard Longley which has made celebrating Traditional Latin Masses every Sunday at St Wulstan's possible.

Music at all Masses will continue to be provided by Schola Gregoriana Malverniensis.

LMS Pilgrimage to Glastonbury – Saturday 7 September

The Annual LMS pilgrimage to Glastonbury will take place on Saturday, 7th September 2019 at Magdalene Street, Glastonbury, BA6 9EL. The programme for the day is:

- 11:30 High Mass (sung by The Rupert Bevan Singers)
- 13:00 Lunch in the Parish Hall (bring your own food)
- 14:00 Rosary in the Abbey Grounds
- 15:00 Exposition and Confessions
- 16:00 End

For full details see the LMS website.

Society of St Tarcisus Server Training – Saturday 14 September

The Society of St Tarcisus – the society for altar servers for the Traditional Roman Rite – is holding a training day on:

- 14 September at St Mary, Moorfields, London.

Men and boys will learn all roles for Low Mass and Sung Mass, and also High Mass if there is demand. There will also be a chance for those attending to be enrolled in the Society of St Tarcisus and be promoted from grade to grade.

Booking is required, so that the organisers have an accurate idea of numbers attending and what they wish to learn. There is no fee. For full details see the St Tarcisus website.

Can you serve or are you interested in learning?

We can never have too many servers on our rota, but – as the young man on the right illustrates – it is possible sometimes to have too few, especially for a Missa Cantata, and we do occasionally have difficulty in finding enough for Mass.

Please contact us if you'd like to be added to our list of men and boys willing to serve from time to time. If you haven't served before, or if it's been a while, then don't worry: training at a time to suit you could be organised. (See also the Society of St Tarcisius Server Training Day above.)

Schola Gregoriana Malvernensis

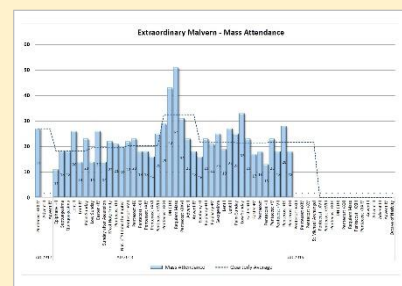

Looking for something new to do? Our Schola is always on the lookout for new singers, whatever your level of experience. The Schola Gregoriana Malvernensis rehearses on Wednesday evenings and before Mass and sings both Gregorian Chant and traditional polyphony.

If you're interested in joining then please do get in touch.

Accountability

It is common practice in many parishes to publish details of Mass Attendance and Offertory Collections in the weekly bulletin. The corresponding information for Masses organised by Extraordinary Malvern is available in graphical form on the website. See the "Accountability" page for current details.

Our first "Annual Report" is also now available on the website.

The Latin Mass Society of England & Wales

The Latin Mass Society, founded in 1965, is an association of Catholic faithful dedicated to the promotion of the traditional Latin liturgy of the Catholic Church, the teachings and practices integral to it, the musical tradition which serves it, and the Latin language in which it is celebrated. The Society provides invaluable help and encouragement to groups – including ours – in establishing and maintaining Traditional Latin Mass centres.

If you are not yet a member, then you might like to consider joining and supporting their work. More details can be found on their Membership page. The local LMS representative is Alastair Tocher (contact details below).

Mass of Ages – Issue 199 – Summer 2019 – Available now

Mass of Ages is the quarterly magazine of the Latin Mass Society. It contains reports on our many activities across the country, news of Traditional Catholic events, articles on aspects of traditional Faith and culture, and opinions on developments in the Catholic Church.

Copies of the latest edition, are usually available on the table to the back of church. Mass of Ages is free to non-members; members receive their own personal copies in the post.

St Martha & Agatha Veils

One of our growing flock sells a range of chapel veils online. If you are considering buying a veil, why not go and see what is on offer at StMarthaandAgatha.

easyfundraising – Support St Wulstan’s shopping online

You can now support St Wulstan’s, Little Malvern – FREE - almost every time when you shop online. Every time you shop online via easyfundraising at one of 3,300 retailers (e.g. John Lewis, Aviva, Sainsbury’s, Booking.com, Amazon, eBay, Viking, etc.) a donation will be made to St Wulstan’s ... and it won’t cost you a penny extra!

To get started simply go to <https://www.easyfundraising.org.uk/causes/stwulstancce/>, sign up for free, and start shopping – your donations will be collected from retailers automatically by easyfundraising and periodically sent to St Wulstan’s. It couldn’t be easier! There are no catches or hidden charges and St Wulstan’s will be really grateful for your donations. Thank you for your support.
