

EATON CAMP HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Wednesday 25th April 2018
Eaton Bishop Village Hall, HR2 9QN
7:15 pm

Trade and Transport on the Wye and Lugg

An illustrated presentation by

Heather Hurley

based on the research of her book Herefordshire's River Trade featuring barges, cargoes, wharfs and those who worked in the trade.

Heather Hurley worked in public and college libraries and is the Hon Librarian at Herefordshire Archives. Her books include The Old Roads of South Herefordshire, The Story of Ross, Landscape Origins of the Wye Valley, The Green Lanes of Herefordshire, Herefordshire's River Trade, Harewood End Agricultural Society and three social histories of pubs. She is chairman of the Ross Civic Society and past chair of the Friends of Herefordshire Archives.

Members Free Non members £4 to include refreshments
All welcome

The talk will start after a very brief AGM
Enquiries to Louise Hamilton 01432 354443 or Andrew Lively 01981 250231