

Barn Hill Conservation Group Mason's Field Exhibition

The story of how a wildflower meadow has been restored in Fryent Country Park

Ladies Bedstraw

Tragopogon x miriabilis, a hybrid of Goatsbeard and Salsify.

Selfheal

Cowslip

Snake's-head Fritillary

Yellow Rattle

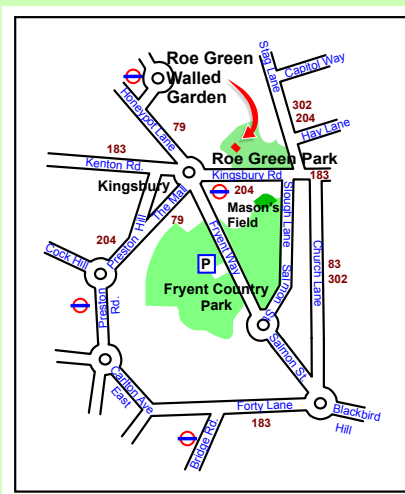

A free exhibition at Roe Green Walled Garden situated in Roe Green Park

15th Jan - 28th March, 10.30 - 2.30, Tues, Thurs, Sat.

BHCG carries out environmental conservation projects in Fryent Country Park on a Sunday from 10.00 am - 12.30 pm. We work in a different section of the park each week. Meeting places vary. To find out about projects and where to meet please contact www.bhcg.btck.co.uk or

BHCG
Roe Green Walled Garden
Roe Green Park
Kingsbury Road,
Kingsbury NW9 9HA
or call 0208 206 0492

We are open on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 10.30 am - 2.30 pm.

The Mason's Field Restoration Project was supported by The National Lottery Heritage Fund and Brent Council.

Barn Hill Conservation Group is a registered charity No.1085476. It was formed in 1984 to help conserve the park. It is organised entirely by volunteers and supported by donations.