

Training courses in wildlife and conservation

Masons Field,
Fryent Country Park
and Roe Green
Walled Garden

See list of events
on reverse

Supported by Barn Hill
Conservation Group

Supported by
The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

Masons Field, Fryent Country Park is being restored. Learn more on a free training course or other event for the community and the public.

Children must be supervised by an adult.
Please bring appropriate clothing and footwear.

Hay Meadow Flowers and Grasses	Sundays in June and early July	10am – 12.30pm	Fryent Country Park*
Flies	Thursday 26 June	10.30am – 3.30pm	Roe Green and Masons Field#
Floodplain Meadows advice	Thursday 3 July	11am – 3.30pm	Roe Green and Masons Field#
Soil Fauna	Thursday 10 July	10.30am – 3.30pm	Roe Green and Masons Field#
Stone Fruit Pruning	Sunday 13 July	10am – 3pm	Fryent Country Park*#
Bees	Thursday 24 July	To be advised	Roe Green and Masons Field#
Spiders	Thursday 21 August	To be advised	Roe Green and Masons Field#

*See Barn Hill Conservation Group programme for other meeting points.

Booking advised as start time or other details may change. Please contact Barn Hill Conservation Group on 020 8206 0492.

For details of practical conservation projects and surveys at Masons Field, Fryent Country Park and Roe Green Walled Garden, please see the Barn Hill Conservation Group website. Fryent Country Park (and Masons Field) projects are on Sundays. Roe Green Walled Garden events are on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Enquiries:

Barn Hill Conservation Group
Roe Green Walled Garden
Kingsbury Road, Kingsbury NW9 9HA
020 8206 0492

www.bhcg.btck.co.uk

