

maisemore local history society

Privacy Notice

Maisemore Local History Society (MLHS) is subject to data protection regulations under UK law, which control the use of personal data.

MLHS will:

- Comply with the data protection laws of the UK.
- Only collect personal data (name, address, telephone numbers, email addresses and similar) for the purposes of the administration of the Society and its activities.
- Only contact an individual by post, email or telephone if they have given their explicit permission for that method. An individual can withdraw that permission at any time by contacting the Society.
- Look after the data (it is strictly confidential) and not lose it.
- Allow an individual to see the data held about them, and the Society will correct it, if necessary, or if requested, the Society will delete the data.
- Review data held regularly, and when no longer needed for active use the Society will either delete the data or, if a record is still needed (and the individual has not requested their record to be deleted) reduce the data held to the minimum necessary information.
- Not use the data for business purposes.
- Not pass on the data to a third party without explicit consent to do so.
- Destroy data carefully so it cannot be accessed in future.

Maisemore Local History Society Data Protection Consent Form

We take your privacy seriously, as set out in our privacy notice.

We will use your personal information to administer your membership and if you give your explicit consent, this information will also be used to send you details of events, news, occasional flyers and publications.

Please give your consent to receive communications from MLHS by ticking all the relevant boxes below.

Post ☐

Email ☐

Phone ☐

Name

Signed

Date

Please return the bottom of this form to David Jones, Springrise, Maisemore, Gloucester, GL2 8EX either by post or by scanning/photographing and emailing to david.jones@maisemore.org.uk