PLACING OF THE WREATH(S)

DEDICATION Francis Walker

When you go home, tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow, we gave our today
(Kohima Epitaph)

PRAYER

Let us pray

Ever-living God,
we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;

may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples
and establish harmony among the nations,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CLOSE

And may the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with us all
and remain with us always. Amen

Short Order of Service on Remembrance Sunday: Wreath laying

All gather in silence

The last 12 months have proved to be a very important time for Anniversaries.

The Legion marked the end of the First World War ..
One hundred years ago.

This I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning.

Lamentations 3.27-23

I lift up my eyes to the hills - from whence will my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

We meet in the presence of God.
We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith
for reconciliation between the nations,
that all people may, together, live in freedom,
justice and peace.

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain
continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.

We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow
those whose lives,
in world wars and conflicts past and present,
have been given and taken away.

We remember those who were killed in action
or by disease, the bereaved, the lost,
the families which were shattered,
the wounded, maimed and injured,
those who held in silence un-speakable memories of warfare.
And we remember those who remained
anxiously at home in this community,

Let us pray that God will heal all memories,
speak a word of peace, and bring us his healing.

The Exhortation:

.... Francis Walker

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
we will remember them.

ALL We will remember them.
