

Counting Board 1, 2 & 3

Information

This lovely wooden set will help the older child to learn about numbers and counting, and the values of the numbers what does 10 look like? Is 6 more than 10, or less?

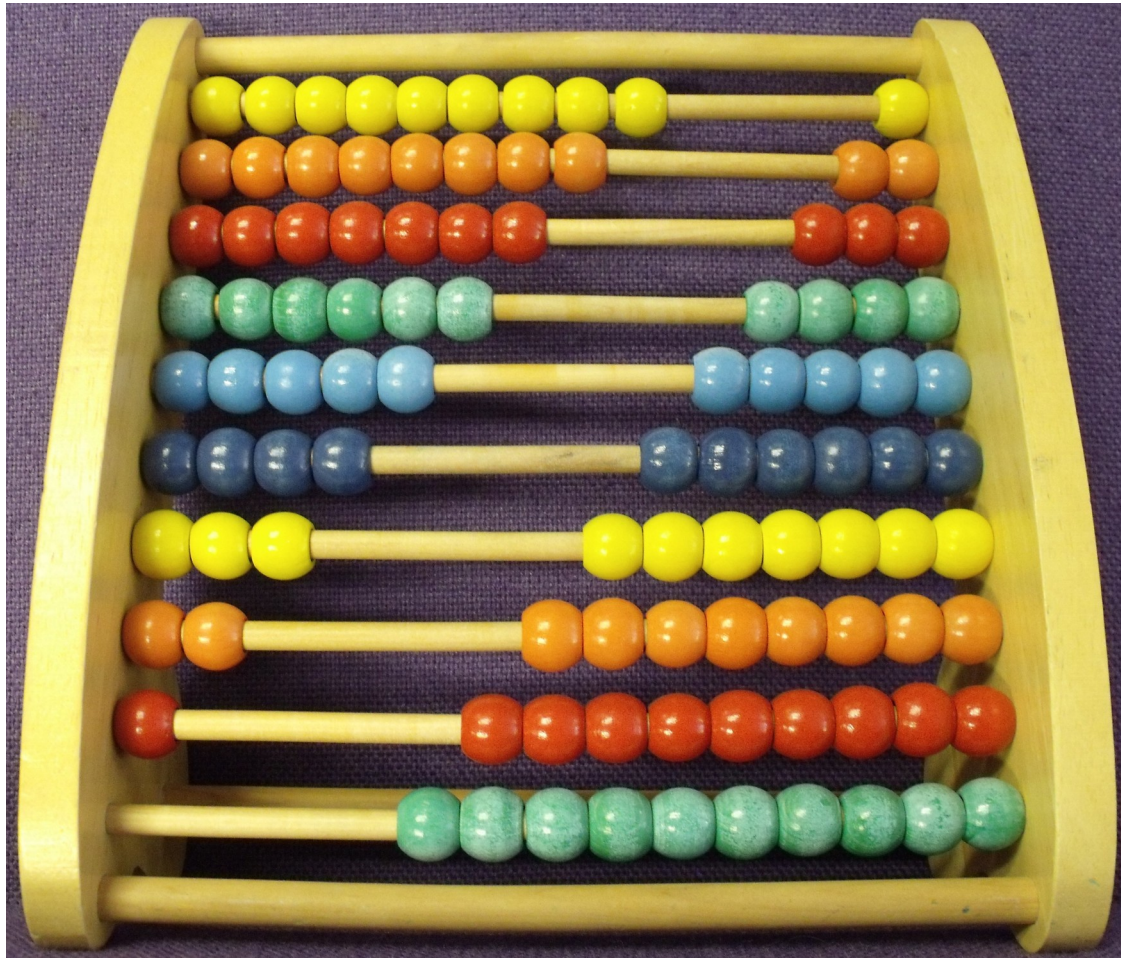

The child friendly “worms” are colourful and have faces on each one. You can also talk about colours and shades of colours, or even about worms and mini-beasts!

Each set of 10 worms comes in a handy white cotton bag.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: 4 sets of 10 “worms” and 3 wooden bases.

Wooden Abacus

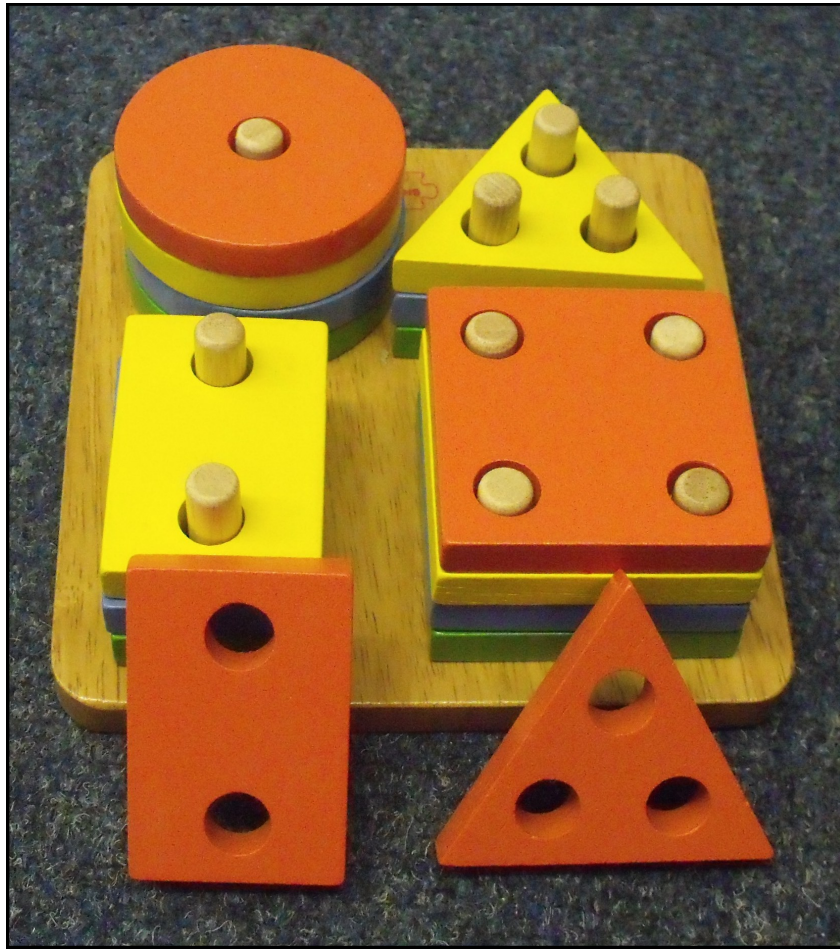

Information

This colourful 100 bead, 10 bar Abacus is a perfect tool for the early development of children's counting, colour and pattern recognition. Little ones won't be able to resist the vibrant colour palette and have plenty of fun as they learn.

Age: 18 months plus

Contents: wooden abacus

Four Shape Sorter

Information

This wooden toy can help with learning the names of colours and shapes.

For extended play, how about grouping all the red ones or counting how many have straight edges?

Age: 12 months plus

Contents: 1 board and 16 shapes.

Count A Cookie

Information

Little ones build early maths skills as they sort colourful cookies.

Developing fine motor skills, counting, colour and number recognition.

Age: 12 months plus

Contents: 5 Cookie jars and 15 cookies.

Cognito Numbers

Information

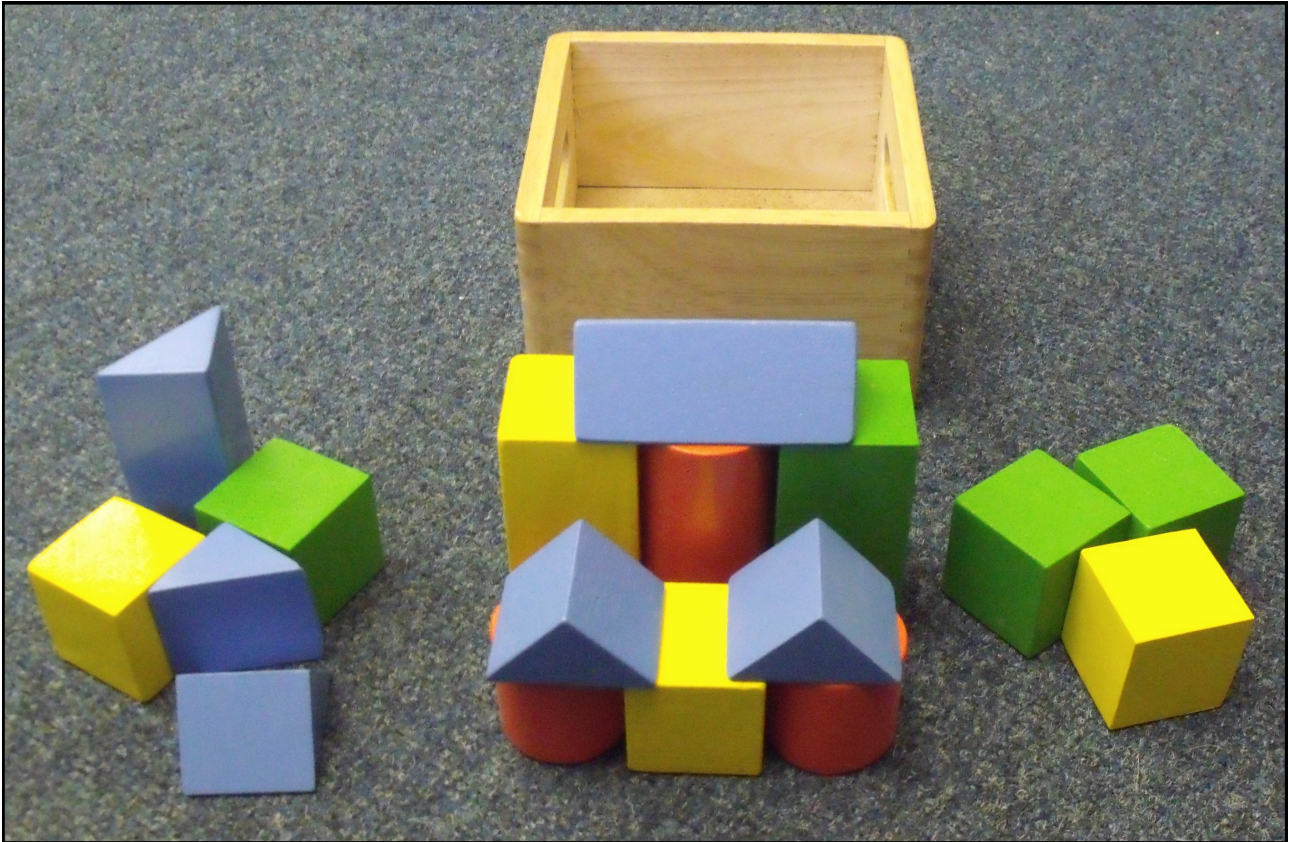

A wooden puzzle which focuses on numbers and counting. This can help children start to understand about the value of numbers eg; There are more dots by the number 7, than there are by the number 2.

The puzzle can also be used to help to learn colours.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: Box and lid with 30 pieces inside.

First Building Blocks

Information

All sort of buildings and towers can be created with these. For extended play, perhaps your child could group all the yellow ones or count all the cylinders. Older children can name the shapes too.

Age: 12 months plus

Contents: 1 wooden box and 17 coloured shapes.