

Catch me if you can, Board Game

Information

This game is for 2-4 players, it helps with numeracy skills and social interaction with others to take turns in playing the game.

Age: 4 years plus

Contents: Game base, plus 12 coloured playing pieces and 4 ghosts.

Fruity Bugs, Board Game

Information

This game is for 2-4 players and is good for colour recognition and social skills by taking turns with others to play the game.

Age: 4 years plus

Contents: Large strawberry base, 4 coloured cards and 20 bugs.

Rapido, Wooden Game

Information

What chaos! Countless coloured balls all over the table. Collect them quickly, but in the right order. You will need good eyes and nifty hands!

Age: 4 years plus, 2-4 players, each game lasts 15-30 mins.

Contents: 1 bamboo cylinder, 1 rope, 4 tubes, 8 bamboo strips, 32 wooden balls, 2 bags and 2 instruction sheets.

Fruit Dominoes

Information

Use this traditional game to help learn about fruit, their names and healthy eating whilst developing cognitive skills.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: Instruction sheet and 21 fruit dominoes.

Vegetable Dominoes

Information

Use this traditional game to help learn about vegetables, their names and healthy eating whilst developing cognitive skills.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: Instruction sheet and 17 vegetable dominoes.

Wooden Household Puzzles

Information

Starter peg boards with plastic pegs for easy grip and simple shapes to slot easily into place. At the same time your child can expand his/her vocabulary and colour Recognition.

Age: 12 months plus

Contents: 3 wooden bases each with 6 inserts.

Down on the Farm 3D Puzzle

Information

This colourful jigsaw can be used to promote imaginative play in addition to developing hand eye co-ordination, problem solving and observation skills, plus vocabulary, social interaction and more.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: 21 pieces 8 slot in pieces

Learning Turtle Floor Puzzle

Information

Excellent for developing hand and eye coordination, motor skills, problem solving and helps children to understand shapes and colours while having fun.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: 45 pieces

Giant Animal Alphabet Floor Puzzle

Information

Beautiful, brightly coloured jigsaw that can be used to promote imaginative play while beginning to introduce literacy. In addition to developing skills in problem solving and hand/eye co-ordination.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: 30 pieces

Happy Finger Families

Information

A modern twist on a classic game, be the first to collect a full family to be the winner, you can also choose to play a different way by collecting all the dad's, all the daughters or all the babies. This game develops fine motor skills, hand to eye coordination, problem solving and social skills.

Age: 3 years plus

Contents: 30 game pieces in 6 different coloured family images