Prayer for today

Mighty GOD
Your power is awesome –
But is tempered by love
Forgive Father, our human love of power
So often it corrupts and leads to injustice,
Discrimination and unhappiness.
Lord, may all who wield power do justice,
Love mercy and walk humbly with you.
Following the example of Jesus
May your kingdom come.

Amen

A Special Welcome

We give a special welcome to Kim & Melanie, their family and friends, as we celebrate Jack's Baptism.

Today's Music

The music before today's service is a medley of songs, including some chosen by Melanie, sung in Sunday School during the 1980s.

Merseyside for Romania

Jean Hickson is delighted with the 66 shoeboxes and the big toys and goods which I delivered on Tuesday. Dave is now recovering, so I can go ahead with collecting warm clothing, shoes, bedding, etc. for the harsh winter. Money for medicines and other needs will be much appreciated.

Phone: 0151 625 1063 (if you want goods collected) or deliver to 29 Springfield Avenue.

*Many thanks for your support

Growing Together

Building on the work the church has done around Growing Together, and following on from the findings of our Healthy Churches report, the existing Wednesday Housegroup is going to a study a booklet entitled Christian Spirituality, by Paul Smith. We will start on Wednesday, 24th October at 7.30 p.m., but even if you cannot join us at the start don't worry as they are all self contained and stand alone. Ian is going to join us and they will be held at Catherine's, 20 Wirral Mount. Speak to Ian or Catherine if you would like to know more.

Christian Praise Services in Residential Homes in West Kirby

On Friday, 2nd November at 2.00 p.m. there will be a Service held at "The Dales", Marine Park, led by Rev'd John Barnett. We need more people to help with the singing, give out hymn sheets and chat to the residents. Services at residential and nursing homes are greatly appreciated by those who can no longer come to church and who love it when church comes to them. Please consider if you could give half an hour to support this valuable work.
