Parental Consents Please date and sign the following:

- I give my permission for the said child to be taken out on nature walks and trips that may be arranged from time to time. Staff will be in attendance at all times during these trips.

- I hereby give my consent for staff to provide First Aid, or seek medical attention for the said child in an emergency. _____
- In the event of an emergency at the Village Hall which means that the group has to abandon the session and staff are unable to inform anyone who is authorised to collect your child, I give my consent for a member of staff to take the said child to a safe place whilst they continue to try to contact an authorised collector. A member of staff will supervise your child at all times.

- I hereby give permission for my child to be photographed during Play Start sessions. I understand that these photographs may be used for publicity purposes in local publications, on the Play Start website and promotional posters in the local area.

- I understand that the group can only operate with parental support. I agree to being placed on rotas to help with tasks such as setting/clearing up sessions and taking toys or towels home to wash.

- I agree to my details being added to the parent contact list (circulated to all parents).

- I understand that it is the parents/carers responsibility to apply sun cream as required before leaving my child at Play Start. _____
