

Edinburgh & District Riding Club – Members Training

Cavaletti Clinic with egCavaletti

At Cousland Park Livery, Cousland, Cousland Farm, Dalkeith EH22 2PD

From 5.30pm Monday 17 July 2017

egCavaletti is created and run by Edinburgh based Emma-Louise Gibson. For a number of years Emma represented Scotland and Great Britain in Pony, Junior and Young Rider Teams, between 2006 and 2010 she claimed notable success with her main horse Tarijn Star at FEI YR and Prix St George Level whom she had trained herself from a 3 year old. Her experience in riding and teaching has come from many years as being Head Groom and Rider for top International Dressage Yards in England, Belgium and Germany.

egCavaletti is designed for everyone and anyone and is beneficial for all types of horses and ponies. One disadvantage of cavaletti work is that it is best done with a ground-person to set up each successive exercise. If, like me, you usually work on your own, this can be a problem. However by attending egCavaletti Clinics it means the poles and spacings are already laid out with different and unique exercises every week as well as having eyes on the ground for advice, training and tips.

Bookings must be received by Tuesday 11 July latest. Times will be advised by text or email.

£25 per person for a 1 hour group lesson (maximum 4 riders in a lesson). Riders are grouped by horse experience with cavaletti (e.g. beginner - never done poles before, competent – manages canter poles).
