

WILLIAM THOMAS HIRONS

1893 – 1918

William Thomas Hiron was born in 1893 in Chipping Warden, Northamptonshire where he grew up. He was the 2nd son of William & Hannah Hiron, William was a shepherd on a farm and William Thomas became a milkman on a farm. On the census of 1901 & 1911 and also on the Charlecote Memorial Plaque he is known as Thomas. By 1915 the family had moved to Lower Hunscombe, between Wellesbourne & Charlecote.

He joined the Royal Warwickshire Regiment as a private No. 16763 and served in France. He was killed in action on the 14th April 1918 and was awarded the British and Victory medals.

He is Remembered with Honour at the Ploegsteert Memorial, Hainaut, Belgium and also on the Charlecote War Memorial.

