

TheFED FACEBOOK

FaceBook is one of the biggest and most popular social networking sites on the internet.

Our FaceBook group page is called 'TheFED – A Network of Writing and Community Publishers.'

This is a fun space for our members to meet up online. You can chat together as a group or individually, post a message on our wall, ask us a question, start a poll, share pictures and video-clips – you can even play online games together.

TheFED events and Blog entries are also posted to our FaceBook.

TheFED FaceBook is public (anyone on the internet can view it) so by using it regularly you can have fun AND really help TheFED to raise our profile!

TheFED WRITING CHALLENGE

On the 1st of every month, a new writing challenge theme is set by one of our members. Every challenge closes at midnight on the last day of the month.

TheFED Writing Challenge is open to everyone. It doesn't cost anything to submit your writing and there are no prizes, winners or losers.

Writing can be in any form or style, poetry or prose.

All submissions will be displayed on TheFED website and may also be featured in future TheFED publications.

The address of the writing challenge is:

Read, enter, comment, explore past challenges and join our mailing list to get the writing challenge reminders here.

TheFED BLOG

Our Blog is an online journal that can have many different authors ('Bloggers') and be read by anyone on the internet. It can be used to:

- publicise local or national events
- share your group news
- promote your publications
- display reviews
- recommend a book, film or band
- share links to other websites
- post your writing and request feedback (aka 'Broadsheet')
- submit reports on festivals and events you have attended.

The more Bloggers we have, the better!

TheFED GROUPSPACE

This is a very versatile and useful group management tool. We use it:

- to send out our writing challenge and news update emails to all our registered members.
- as an online calendar which automatically updates and displays forthcoming events on TheFED website calendar page.
- as an online database to safely store our signed up members contact details.
- to remind our signed up members to update their own personal records from time to time.
