A session exploring curves & lines.

WEST END SHOW DANCE - with Maria Hennings Hunt IDTA

If you have ever fancied strutting your stuff to some of the West Ends best show tunes...think Hats, Canes and Sparkly Waistcoats...then this Saturday afternoon workshop is guaranteed to be just up your street! No previous dance experience is needed to join in, just a willingness to smile and have some fun! So come on down and try your hand (or should that be feet?) at WEST END SHOW DANCE! (Hats & Canes provided!)

PAM HOWARD MBE has taught dance in Kent, as an examination subject for over 30 years and been both a moderator and examiner in GCSE and A-level Dance for several years. Her work as a teacher also involves working in partnership with various dance companies on workshops, residencies performances and on festivals. A freelance Dance Consultant, Pam is passionate about the value of dance for everyone. She was awarded the MBE in 2002 for 'services to dance, education and the community of Hextable'.

MARIA HENNINGS HUNT is a fully qualified IDTA dance teacher and Zumba Instructor. She runs her own South London based dance school teaching a variety of dance styles to all ages from 4–94! She also teaches regularly at Len Goodman's Dance Centre in Dartford.

You don't need a partner or any previous dance experience for either of the dance sessions - just bring a smile & your feet! (Two left ones will do!) Wear loose comfortable clothing that you can move freely in.

Drinks will be served at Registration and during the Morning, Lunchtime and Afternoon breaks.

Please bring a bottle of water with you!
