

DACT DAYS OUT

July - Sept 2014

A Cure For The Summertime Blues

Summertime is here and we have some new destinations for you to try, as well as old favourites.

During April to June we offered a very full program including a number of new destinations, with as many suggestions from our members as we could include. We have monitored the response and overall we are reasonably pleased. With so many trips on offer it was inevitable that some would end up being cancelled through lack of numbers. We try hard to avoid having to cancel trips but you will appreciate we cannot run our buses at a financial cost to DACT. We will continue to monitor bookings and adjust our programmes accordingly. As long as the demand is there DACT DAYS OUT will continue to operate. Some trips we had to cancel were a surprise to us but what was most disappointing was the take up for the theatre trips. Theatre trips require a lot more administrative effort and based on the bookings we got – apart from 'Top Hat' – we have decided the take up is not sufficient for us add any new ones.

Age – It appears that there is some confusion on this but to clarify there is NO age limit for DACT DAYS OUT trips. It is open to young and old.
