iGirl

Clued Up

Gangs Work.

your questions answered

iGirl is a specialist mentoring programme that uses creative process and journaling to explore individual stories, experiences, beliefs and behaviours.

By exploring story and taking the time to build positive relationships, we hope that girls aged under 18 will avoid the risks associated with gangs and make positive choices to shape their future.

"iGirl has helped me to see the world differently and my mind-set is more positive. Instead of making bad choices, I have been able to resolve difficult situations in the best possible way"
