Base25 is committed to the active promotion and support of equality and diversity in the way it organises, manages and delivers services. The aim of our policy is to oppose and prevent unfair discrimination and to re-address imbalances.

we continue to listen, support and represent young people by providing creative and challenging opportunities and activities that enable their participation and learning to support them in shaping their lives.

Support and counselling for children and young people who have experienced or witnessed domestic abuse and are at risk of using abusive behaviours.

your questions answered

Have you witnessed or been impacted by domestic abuse?

SAFE supports young people up to the age of 17 who have witnessed or been impacted by domestic abuse.

Are you or others upset or concerned about the behaviour choices you are making?

We can help you at that critical moment to support you in making positive choices.

We are trained in using Cognitive Behaviour Therapy (CBT) to help you with behaviour difficulties.

Do you want to change the negative behaviour?

We offer 1 to 1 programmes of informal education and counselling to support you in achieving your goals.

Change can be achieved, if you are open to the possibility and prepared to do the work
