Approaching Daily Prayer Times

For most people it is easier to pray regularly if you set aside a specific time that fits into your usual daily activities – a time when you would not be disturbed and when, perhaps, you can unplug the phone for a short while.

Decide how long you feel you can comfortably set aside for prayer. If you can only manage about ten minutes, have a short Bible reading, followed by prayer, rather than all prayer without a reading.

Places

Some people find it helps them to have a set place for prayer, such as a specific chair, a room, or corner of a room. You may consider setting off for work ten minutes earlier and stopping the car somewhere en route, or find a quiet place to spend some time in prayer during your lunch break.

Surroundings

Use symbols and object that help you to concentrate on God. If you are constantly distracted by thoughts of what you have to do that day keep a notebook handy and write down those thoughts so that you can return to prayer. Lighting a candle may help (Christ the light of the world), or looking at a beautiful picture, or listening to a piece of music.

Bible readings

When you come to the Bible reading, pause first and ask the Holy Spirit to direct your thinking. Pause again at the end and ask what the passage is saying to you. The use of one of the many types of Bible notes will help. Then thank God for His words just read.

Pray as you can!

Pray as you can and not as you can't. God doesn't require elaborate and extended prayers, but simply seeks our presence and our hearts bonded to His.

Relax and let go of any anxieties you have. As always, you are in the presence of God, but now try to become aware of His presence. He who made you and loved you is with you now, around and within; rest secure in His presence.

Bring the person who is uppermost in your mind into this loving and healing presence; hold them there, letting God's love shine on them.

One by one, lift each of your loved ones into His presence.

Lift to God the things happening in this country that worry you most and ask that His will be done.

Move further afield and bring to God other parts of the world where there is special need.

Lift your neighbours and work colleagues into God's presence and also those who you don't seem to be able to get on with.

Wait quietly to see if the Holy Spirit brings someone else to your mind who needs your prayers.

Close with these words – Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, my Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

- ✝ Bible Reading
- ✝ Prayer Diary

Consider the week that has gone, the people you have met and the needs you have been made aware of. Prepare for our church services tomorrow.

Jesus taught us to love God with all our heart and soul;

Ask that you may see yourself as God sees you:-

Do I live for self or for God? Do I try to do His will or my own? Do I pray regularly? What are the false Gods in my life?

Jesus taught us to love our neighbours as ourselves:

Am I totally absorbed with my own family to the exclusion of others?

Do I spend enough time with my family? Does my life reflect my faith?

Am I willing to forgive those who have wronged me?

Consider the week ahead – the worship tomorrow – those who will lead and preach. The opportunities, responsibilities and people you will meet in the week ahead.

Concluding Prayer

Lord Jesus, thank you that your blood cleanses me from all sin. Thank you for your forgiveness and that you love me so dearly. Live in me to be a blessing to all I meet, both this day and in the coming week. Amen.
