USE OF PHOTOGRAPHS AND VIDEOS OF YOUNG PEOPLE

On occasions, photographs and videos of young people taking part in activities are taken for a variety of uses. At 1st Bramhall we use photos and videos to create a DVD which we show at troop supper. We also put some photos and videos on our website, our Twitter accounts and use photos in our group newsletter. Sometimes photos may also be submitted to the local newspapers, the Group, District or County newsletters and websites or put on display.

We follow The Scout Association guidelines when using photos and videos to ensure the safeguarding of young people. Further details can be found in our Privacy Statement and on our website. If you object to our controlled use of photos and videos of your child please inform us in writing, otherwise, we consider that we have your consent. If you have any concerns about our privacy statement or would prefer a particular image be removed from use please talk to a leader.

GIFT AID DONATIONS (applicable to all gifts including membership subscriptions)

Please treat as Gift Aid Donations all gifts of money that I have made in the past four years and all future gifts of money that I make from the date of this declaration.
