THE BISHOP'S LETTER

Is it working?

Two interesting challenges have raised their heads recently on the subject of work. John McDonnell, the Shadow Chancellor, has said that, if elected, Labour would introduce a four-day, 32 hour working week. "We should work to live, not live to work," he told the Labour Party Conference. On the same lines, but less radically, there were calls for the clergy six-day working week to be reduced by the introduction of a second day off once a month: three weeks of six days, and one of five days.

Both these challenges raise important questions about how we see work – indeed, how we understand life itself, and our purpose and meaning here on earth. I am responding to the second of them in one of my occasional letters to our clergy and lay ministers (Letter to Clergy 27 on our Diocesan website).

To John McDonnell and his aspiration to reduce further the working week, I would say this: I fully understand, and readily accept, that some workplaces and working conditions can be brutalising, exploitative or dehumanising. The Christian struggle for good factory acts and the banning of child chimney sweeps is never done. In our day, various forms of exploitative labour practices and modern slavery are still present and shame our 'civilised' society.

On the other hand, work can and should be noble, good, creative, relational, healthy and enriching. The story of creation in Genesis makes clear that God works; and that we, in his image, were created for work (and for rest). When John McDonnell says "We should work to live, not live to work", I want to tell him that work is part of life, and should be a good part of it. Work and life are not contrasts or opposites. Working is part of being in the image of God.

Yes, let's make the workplace as good as we can. I heard recently from someone who works in a call centre that she is told not to rush callers, but to chat and engage well with them, and that her success is not about a quota of sales, but of resolving her callers' problems and leaving them happier than when they called. She finds that work fulfilling. That sounds to me like a good workplace – a positive part of life.

Let's seek to do our work – and to enable others to do their work – to the glory of God.

With best wishes

+Donald
Bishop of Peterborough

EVENING SERVICE OF THE WORD

This service is held once a month on Tuesday evening (following the third Sunday of the month) at 6.30pm at St. Mary's Badby. Led in turn by some of those who attend, there is always a brief talk about somebody inspirational. All welcome! Forward ESOW dates are November 19 and December 17.

BADBY AND DISTRICT FILM SOCIETY

The films to be screened this month are:

Sat 16th Nov Verdi's DON CARLO (2013)

Our Supper at the Opera series continues with the "grandest of grand operas", set in 16th century Spain and featuring the public parade and burning of condemned heretics in its famous Auto-da-fé scene. This Salzburg Festival stage version stars Jonas Kaufmann, Anja Harteros & Matti Salminen. Antonio Pappano conducts Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. "Brilliantly sung and well-staged, this production makes crystal clear the complex plot." Italian, with English subtitles (237 mins).

Thu 28th Nov THE DISCREET CHARM OF THE BOURGEOISIE (1972)

A group of upper-middle-class people attempts – despite continual interruptions – to dine together. Won 2 BAFTAs and an Oscar. "Perhaps [Buñuel's] most direct and most 'public' film... in addition to being extraordinarily funny & perfectly acted, [it] moves with the breath-taking speed and self-assurance that only a man of Buñuel's experience can achieve without resorting to awkward ellipsis." French, plus some dialogue in Spanish, with English subtitles (102 mins).

Fri 29th Nov BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY (2018)

Biopic of Freddie Mercury, lead singer of the rock band Queen, following the singer's life from when he joins the band in 1970 to their 1985 Live Aid performance at Wembley Stadium. Directed by Bryan Singer; stars Rami Malek, Lucy Boynton, Tom Holland, Allen Leach & Mike Myers. Won 2 BAFTAs & 4 Oscars. "Hits a handful of high notes, but as an in-depth look at a beloved band, it offers more of a medley than a true greatest hits collection" (134 mins).

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

The next event is our AGM with speaker Peter Stanton of the Northamptonshire Artefact Recovery Club (a metal detectorist) to be held on Friday 15th November in Badby Village Hall at 7.30pm. Bring your own refreshments, alcoholic or otherwise. Table nibbles and a glass of wine/juice per person will be complimentary. Subscriptions for next year can be paid at this event, and anyone wishing to join the Committee, would be most welcome (we are still without a Chair and Secretary). Finally, our last event for this year is the Christmas Crafts Evening on Friday 13th December.

Many thanks to those who attended and/or helped at the very well supported Harvest Festival service and at the Harvest Supper and Sale. PARISH NEWS

It is sad to report this month the deaths of two loved members of our community who had to move from here to old age care.

Patricia (Paddy) Jennings died on the 29th September and a Celebration of her Life Service takes place on 22nd October, as this copy goes to press. She was a great supporter of our BCP Matins and Evensongs in the past, and her garden was a picture of colour, cared for most lovingly.

Mary Joan Hartop died on 5th October. Formerly of Nether Preston, and known here as Joan, again she was a former worshipper here and member of our PCC. She was a driver of heavy trucks for the ATS in the last war and with five other girls called Mary in her troop she took to using her second name.

May their Souls rest in peace.

HARVEST FESTIVAL – Sunday 6th October

This service was led by Gerard Hoare. It was a meaningful service and very many thanks to the flower arrangers and donors of produce, who between them made the church look lovely.

HARVEST SUPPER AND SALE

This was run most excellently with a record result by Anabel Lewis-Bowen and team, who provided an excellent supper of shepherds' pie and apple crumble, good wine and beer.

Before the sale there was the very generous lot entered of a flight in a Tiger Moth from this village's Airport. This made a whopping £140 sold to a village buyer. A big thank you to the two auctioneers and to all the generous buyers of the lots sold, and to Anabel's hardworking team members for their delicious supper and efficient arrangements. But there would be no sale without the produce and food brought forward and there were very generous gifts of such. Thank you to all. The result was a wonderful £1303.

CHRISTMAS WREATHS

Mireya Weaver and team have some well laid plans for this year's production of TWO special wreaths, the Preston Christmas Specials from £16.

Please see the special flier with photo / order form with this Link, which is also available on the website. All the wreath making will be done in the Village Hall on 13th and 14th December and we need, and will welcome back, the past making team volunteers and always need new ones too! to make the key parts and assemble the wreaths with Mireya, tel. 361201.

As before we are only making 50 wreaths this year so please order early to avoid disappointment.

NEWNHAM PARISH COUNCIL

CHAIRMAN – TERRY REGAN JP

CLERK – MARION MONEY 07955 644586

We recently asked for suggestions and volunteers (including someone to organise) for a village VE 75th Anniversary Celebration via Facebook. The response was rather disappointing. If you are interested in putting together an event please do get in touch via the Parish Clerk. Information on how to get involved can be found on the website www.veday75.org.

We have been asked to investigate the installation of a “Cradle Swing” for disabled use in the Play Area. In order to install this we would need to remove two of the four swings and the supply and fit would cost in the region of £3,500. We would welcome your comments via the Parish Clerk's email by the end of the month please.

The next village litter pick will take place on December 1st. Please meet on the Village Green at 10am. A good festive turn out would be excellent.

Our next meeting will be in the Village Hall at 19.30 on 4th November 2019.
