LETTER FROM THE BISHOP

2016 was a year of surprises. You might feel that we could all do with a bit more stability in this New Year. However, I doubt that we can bank on it. Whether you are into politics, sport, soaps and celebrities, or just family and friends, I'm pretty sure you can expect a surprise or two. But I'm not going to make any predictions. One of the interesting things about surprises is how we react to them. It is worth thinking about that. What sort of reactions do you have to a shock election result, or an unexpected sports champion, or an ex-politician being lauded for dancing badly in a yellow suit? Or, much more seriously, how do you react to the news of the serious illness of a loved one, or even yourself? Or the death of someone who has been a hero of yours, or of a family member?

The immediate reaction isn't the most important thing. Some of us are more volatile than others, or more used to showing our feelings. Others seem to take everything calmly, maybe too calmly. But what counts is how these shocks and surprises affect us long term. You may have met someone who says that a tragic event caused them to lose their faith in God. You may be someone who has never been able to deal with a deep disappointment or a death in the family. Jesus seems to rebuke his disciples for panicking in the face of a storm, even a life-threatening one. He seems to imply that his presence ought to give us a deep peace, a strength to deal with what life throws at us.

But it isn't that easy. He still wept at the grave of his friend Lazarus, and he still showed anger at those who used the Temple to make a profit from the poor. He isn't modelling or teaching a false calmness, an emotional deficit. The big question is:

Can we trust him, whatever life throws at us? The famous saying of Job in the King James Version of the Old Testament, "he slay me, yet will I trust in him" (Job 13:15) may be a bad translation, but it still sets us the challenge. And the testimony of the whole Bible, and of so many Christian people in history and today, is absolutely clear. Come what may, he can be trusted.

Great is thy faithfulness.

+ Donald

BADBY FLORAL BEE

After a successful 2nd year we are all set with an exciting new programme of flower displays aimed at developing skills and confidence in novice flower arrangers. We kick off the season on Thursday, January 5 at the village hall from 7.15pm and plan to meet on the 1st Thursday of each month. BADBY & FAWSLEY WI

We start the year with a visit from Simon Williams, known to many of you as the owner of Evergreen Art Café. His business is thriving and he'll tell us how he came to set it up and, maybe, give some tips for any members with similar aspirations.

VILLAGE CLEAN-UP

The next parish working party will meet on The Green on Sunday, January 22, at 10am to spend a couple of hours carrying out necessary repairs and maintenance around the village. For more information contact Sharon Foster, Clerk to BPC or any Parish Councillors.

SCHOOL NEWS

In the first week of December, there was an arts/crafts day for all children to make decorations for their classrooms and to take home. The Christmas Fayre was a great success and was enjoyed by children and their families. The cakes and hot chocolate stalls were very popular. Several Year 5 and 6 children took part in the Area Carol Service at Holy Cross Church, Daventry. The school's handbell ringers played three carols at the service and two children read part of the nativity story. Year 2 and KS2 children have also taken part in Music on a Winter's Evening in school. Younger children performed a Christmas play for their families and the rest of the school. The term finished with a carol service in Badby Church which was well attended by families and friends.

SERVICES

It was a pleasure to welcome the Mothers Union to our church for their annual service of Advent Carols. After the service the ladies (and three gentlemen) enjoyed tea and cake in a convivial atmosphere at the back of the church.

On Tuesday 13th December the school children walked to the church, fascinated by the road-works, (to replace the gas mains) for their Christmas Festival Service. Revd Sue reminded them of the Christmas message, and of her love for chocolate, and the children sang three carols with their usual enthusiasm. The handbell ringers, led by Maureen Sinclair, performed four items and are making considerable progress. Thank you for the angels, the three kings, and the "sheep's heads" that now adorn the church.

On Saturday 17th December we experimented with a service of Traditional Christmas Carols preceded by seasonal refreshments which had a lovely ambience and seemed to be much enjoyed.

SCHOOL

Two performances of "Shepherds Delight" took place in the school to rapturous applause from parents, family and friends. The Christmas story was told in a more modern way, interspersed with seven songs, sung with much vigour. Well done children, teachers, and helpers.

NATIVITY

The Nativity play in support of the "Helping Harry Trust" was a huge success. The children, whether kings, queens, princesses, shepherds or sheep all performed brilliantly, as did the donkey. Very many thanks to Jenny, Charlotte, Helen, Revd Sue, and all who helped in any way, - a fantastic sum of £1600 (approx.) was raised for the trust.

200 CLUB

The 200 Club Christmas Party was held on Saturday 3 December, when entertainment was by The Charlie Tarry Band. Three lucky members each won £100. They are No 21 Mrs. L Carrier
No 16 Mrs. J Tennant
No 19 Mr. J Powell

The Committee thanks all members for their support through the year, which makes a major contribution to the running costs of the hall.

FONS

Friends of Newnham School held a very successful Christmas Fayre with many gift stalls, games and a hamper raffle. Revd Sue, accompanied by Dunchurch Brass Band, led the Carol singing, and Father Christmas, ably supported by his little Elf (and safety) helper were kept very busy. Thank you to the very many helpers.

CHRISTMAS PRIZE BINGO

Many thanks to all who attended or who helped in any way with this tremendously successful annual event. The Village Hall was once again packed to overflowing - and it was particularly good to see so many newcomers to the village. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves, especially the children, and the event raised £922 for church funds.

CHRISTMAS WREATHS

We had sold all 100 wreaths a fortnight before the closing date, and we are sorry if you were among the disappointed ones - order early next year! Many, many thanks to all those stalwarts who gathered holly from Charwelton Hall (by kind permission of Mrs. Catherine Holmes and the Fawsley Estate), collected and sprayed cones, made bunches and pins, tied ribbons, assembled wreaths or made and provided lunch on the making day. It was a lot of hard work, but a most enjoyable social event too for the 25 or so helpers, and we are very grateful. But it was all worth it for the excellent £868 raised for church funds.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

The Christingle service was held in the Chapel on Saturday 17th, with 18 adults and 18 children present. It was a lovely little service, with Christingles nearly all round. Many thanks to June, Kate and Chloé for making those.

The Carol Service the following day was also well attended, with 73 in church, and it was very good to see so many newcomers to the village present. The church was beautifully decorated, and with all the candles lit in the chandeliers, plus the tree lights, was described by more than one member of the congregation as "Magical". We offer many thanks to all those who spent so much time to make the church look so beautiful, to those who provided refreshments, or who contributed in any other way.

The service was put together by Graham Cory and Kate Gibbs, and they are to be congratulated on their efforts too.

Particular thanks to those who brought presents to the service, a magnificent show of gifts - your counter lost count at 200 !!! Well done the generous folk of Charwelton. The gifts were donated to Women's Aid, and it was very good to again welcome representatives of the Refuge to our service. They, and everyone there, greatly enjoyed the service - and the mulled wine, sausage rolls, mince pies etc. afterwards!!

The offertory at the Carol service amounted to another splendid £198.59, which, together with that from the Christingle of £34.40, went to the Children's Society.

The Midnight service and the village Carol Singing (neither of which had taken place when we went to press) will be reported on next month.

100 CLUB

The winning number in the December draw was No. 33 - Meryl Nicholls.

CHRISTMAS DECORATING WORKSHOP

Graham White and Christine Baker held a successful workshop during which those attending had an opportunity to create several most attractive Christmas decorations. Photographs on pp 11 & 12.

THANKS

The work and upkeep of the church in this village could not continue without the help of so many willing volunteers. The flower arrangers, cleaners, sidesmen, readers and all those who undertake the hundreds of small jobs that help things run smoothly are very valuable members of the team. It would be invidious to mention names (for fear of leaving someone out!) but you know who you are and the PCC is most grateful to you.

We are however a shrinking (and aging!) band, who can't go on for ever! So if any of you would be willing to offer some help, or to join the PCC, and to become involved if only in a small way in this very active aspect of village life, we would love to hear from you.

PCC MEETING

The next meeting of the PCC will be on Thursday 5th. January at 7.30pm in the Chapel.

CHARWELTON PARISH MEETING

The Charwelton Parish Meeting postponed from December (at which the precept for 2017 will be decided) will now be held on Wednesday 18th. January at 7.15pm in the Village Hall.

PARISH MEETING

We are delighted to welcome Stephen Finn as Chair of the Parish Meeting following the resignation of Alan Devine in November.

PCC MEETING

The next PCC meeting will be held on Tuesday 24th January at 10.30am in the Church.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

Thank you once again for all who helped to dress the church for Christmas; it looked beautiful and not forgetting our very kind Christmas tree benefactor, you come up trumps every year, thank you, you know who you are!

ROOF REPAIRS

You will be pleased to know that works will begin to replace the church roof on 16th January. We are advised that there will be considerable scaffolding in place, but that we should still be able to safely open the church to visitors. However, there may be restricted access to some areas of the churchyard while the scaffolding is in place.

We would not have been able to start these works in such a short time scale without the support of our Benefice neighbours. So very many of you have attended and helped at the numerous fundraisers organised this year. Thank you.

CHRISTMAS WREATHS

Iris King and a small number of helpers have been brilliant again. Fifty-one wreaths were sold in quick time and a surplus of £540 generated by the effort made. Churchyard holly and fir quality was good and all praise is due to Iris for the great output from her workshop at home. When filing this copy before Christmas, the wreaths, as always, looked splendid on many doors around the village. Thank you to all our customers for your support. Remember to keep them wet!

THE FOURTH 'SINGING FOR CHRISTMAS' CONCERT

The JudoSingers gave another delightful concert in church on 10th December. Approximately 80 attended and filled the nave which was lovely. After the concert there was mulled wine and eats at the village hall. The surplus and collection will be split between the NSPCC and a donation to Church funds. Thank you everyone for this seasonal generosity, and a special thanks to the JudoSingers Choir who were splendid.

PCC MEETING

The first meeting of 2017 will be on Wednesday 25th January at 6.30pm, at The Cedars.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

This month's meeting takes place at the village hall on Tuesday, 24th January, starting at 7.30pm. The speaker will be Geoff Lambert giving a talk entitled "My Dog's Nose Knows".

On 5th February, the WI will be serving a Sunday Lunch at the village hall (to coincide with the usual lunchtime bar). At the time of writing (mid December), details are still to be finalised, so full information will be publicised early this month.

New members are always welcome - if you would like to try the WI, just come along to any monthly meeting (usually on the fourth Tuesday of each month) or contact the Secretary at PennyEves@aol.com for further information.

THANKS FOR THE LINK

The year end is a good time to thank the five stalwarts here who deliver your copies of the Link, every month throughout the year. We know it is appreciated in most homes!!, and Anabel Lewis-Bowen, Cyril Haynes, Claire Hoare, Sophia Maddison and Mike Scragg are the delivery team who make it happen, and we are very grateful to them. Thank you all.

THANKS TO THE EDITOR

Of course the greatest praise should go to our patient and meticulous Editor of the Link, David Pound. He produces a very readable and vital communication that gives much interest, and is one which really helps God's mission in our parishes. It is greatly appreciated here. Thank you David very much.
