THE RECTOR'S LETTER

Dear friends,

How on earth is a Christian to end up taking a decision? Let me outline the problem as this.

- True Christians are called to put the needs and concerns of others before their own.
- True Christians seek the good for others and sacrifice themselves to this end.

The greatest example to follow is that of Jesus who gave his life for the salvation of everyone else. However we all know human nature has a selfish streak. Even when it can be couched in phrases which imply someone is speaking on behalf of many, can we be sure we are not just listening to those who happen to agree with us? How many of us agree to things to keep the peace, because although we might like it one way others don't want that so they put the other person's wishes ahead of their own? In this way those who seek to get their own way will always do so because the good guys will put their own thoughts and feelings aside.

I've always loved the part in the film Jungle Book (probably the very old version) where the vultures are deciding what to do. They get caught in a loop saying "What'd you want to do?" "I don't know. What do you want to do?" Frequently when my husband and I have a day off we sound like that, neither of us wanting to impose our preference on the other and so ultimately neither of us saying what we would actually like to do. It finds us in a loop saying, "Well I want to do what you want to." All very considerate of each other but hardly a way to make a decision.

Such is the case in many community groups, management committees and church groups. Those who are quite happy to put their opinion forward wield a great deal of power because those who are concerned to consider others before themselves will want to please them and so those putting themselves first have more of a chance to win the day. Churches are always prone to this. Those who quietly minister and live out their faith are much more likely to let others opinions hold sway and those who speak out and make their feelings very clear are rarely challenged.

Mind you, I don't think any meeting or decision making process is helped by, "We will do what you want to do", "Well what I want to do is what you want to do!"

How do we work with Philippians 2:3 "Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves" and ever make a decision?

Sue F.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

A week or so before Harvest Festival Robin (whilst on one of many missions to check the rook for leaks) happened upon Alistair and Sylvia in the church who were enjoying a few moments playing keyboard and flute. Taking the bull my the horns he invited them to play at the Harvest Service which they kindly agreed to.

It was beautiful and made a lovely service even more enjoyable. We should like to thank them for their time and generosity.

CHURCH FLOWERS

November; Margaret Williams, till 26th.

No flowers in Advent from 26th November, until the Carol Service.

Claire Hoare will be drawing up the Flower Rota for 2017 before the end of the year, and would be delighted to hear from anyone who would like to become involved? Tel. 361263. Do telephone to learn what is involved.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

This service was lead by Revd Sue, and attendance numbered 19 and two children. Very many thanks to the flower arrangers and donors of produce, who between them made the church look lovely.

A special thank you to Sue and Fergus May, who were married here the day before, and whose fine flowers were given and in place as added decoration for the Harvest service.

HARVEST SUPPER AND SALE

This was run most successfully by Anabel Lewis-Bowen and her team, who had assembled a stalwart group of helpers to provide an excellent supper of shepherds' pie and apple crumble, good wine and beer. The auction was brilliantly conducted by Steve Cook and Richard Fountaine, and brought out the best of generosity from all, raising more money and giving much entertainment too. A big thank you to all the generous buyers of the lots sold, and to Anabel's hardworking 'team' members for their delicious supper and efficient arrangements. But there would be no sale without the produce and food brought forward. There were very generous gifts of such and Claire Hughes' many cakes were a particular draw again. Thank you to all. The result was a wonderful total of £1012 for church funds.

CHRISTMAS WREATHS

Having decided to scale down our wreath making there is still great demand for them. We have a small team of volunteers who will be helping to make wreaths in homes as it suits them, and Iris King will kindly supervise and demonstrate. Please support this project again, as our sales make an important contribution to church funds, but please be warned, we are only making fifty this year.

Prices are unchanged at £10 for the Country Traditional Wreath and £13 for the Preston Decorated Wreath, in holly or blue fir; please specify. Small groups will be meeting for the making of bunches.

All queries and purchase orders please to Gerard Hoare on 361570 / 263. Visit the website for more details.

Order early to avoid disappointment, as (repeat) only 50 wreaths will be made!

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The JuditSingers will be singing again this year at our Church of St Peter and St Paul here at Preston Capes. Please come and join us to sing your favourite carols. The concert will be on Saturday 10th December at 6.30pm followed by light refreshments at the village hall. Tickets £8.00 (Including refreshments) and free for children. Plate collection for the NSPCC and donation to the Church.

Tickets available from Ruth Quilter tel: 01327 361386 or ruth.quilter@btinternet.com and Anabel Lewis-Bowen tel 01327361298 or Sue Henderson tel 312433

Victoria Church and her committee are to be congratulated on the excellent result.
