Constitution of the Pastoral Council and Finance Committee of the Parish of St Teresa of the Infant Jesus, Newcastle upon Tyne

Preamble

On 10-11 December 2011 Fr Michael Hickey convened a meeting of lay members of the Parish, together with those of St Aidan’s, to learn from Fr Johnny Doherty CSsR about Parish Pastoral Councils. This led to a General Meeting of the Parish on 4 January 2012, which elected a Steering Group, consisting of five lay members of the Parish together with the Parish Priest, to guide a process of consultation throughout the Parish and with the Bishop. This process concluded with a second General Meeting on 21 April 2012 to receive the results and agree some principles and priorities. This constitution has been drawn up by the Steering Group to give effect to the wish of that General Meeting that a Pastoral Council should be formed.

This constitution is a statement of the purpose and powers of the Pastoral Council and the Finance Committee which have been set up by the Parish Priest and agreed by representatives of the wider membership of St Teresa’s Parish. It includes aims or objects, functions of the respective groups (Council/Committee), functions of officers (e.g. Chair, Secretary and President), arrangements for appointments or election by a General Meeting, provision for membership, rules for conduct of meetings, how the constitution can be amended and how the Pastoral Council can be dissolved.

Nature and Purpose of the Pastoral Council and Finance Committee

1 The purpose of this constitution is to enable the Parish Priest (here meaning any priest appointed to the charge of the Parish by the Bishop) to share responsibility for the ministry of the Church in this place with all the faithful, in a spirit of partnership and mutual service between clergy and laity, in the sacramental grace of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders, and in accordance with the Code of Canon Law together with the constant teaching of the Universal Church.

2 There shall be a Parish Pastoral Council (‘the Council’) and a Finance Committee (‘the Committee’) in accordance with Canons 536 and 537 respectively and any directions made by the Bishop of Hexham and Newcastle.

2.1 The Parish Priest alone is responsible to the Bishop for the pastoral care and temporal goods of the Parish under Canon Law and to the Trustees of the Diocese under Charity Law. Accordingly any resolution of the Council or Committee requires the assent of the Parish Priest, who will act as President of the Council and of the Committee.

2.2 The Council helps the Parish Priest to exercise his leadership of the pastoral care of the Parish. The Council co-ordinates the work of the Parish, by providing a forum where issues can be raised and changes or initiatives can be proposed, and by encouraging and empowering other groups and individuals to take responsibility for particular tasks and areas of activity. The Council exercises a strategic function, identifying long-term goals and short-term objectives, and designing those procedures and processes by which the mission of the Church can be promoted by the Parish as a whole.

2.3 The Committee assists the Parish Priest in discharging his responsibility for the sound administration of the Parish and its material resources, including fund-raising, finance and accounting, parish records, compliance with legal and Diocesan requirements, and the administration and maintenance of the physical facilities.

Responsibilities of the Parish Priest and the Laity to each other

3 The Parish Priest will consult the Council or the Committee, as appropriate, before making any significant decision affecting the life, worship, mission or property of the Parish.

4 Exceptionally, in case of urgency, the Parish Priest will consult between meetings of the Council or Committee with the respective Chair, who may require the involvement of one or more other members, and any decision will be reported to the next meeting.

5 Individual members of the Council and Committee are expected:
   5.1 to attend every meeting unless prevented by other serious responsibilities or incapacity;
   5.2 to make use of opportunities for training and formation in their role;
   5.3 to accept the need to reach consensus (if possible) and to respect the ultimate responsibility of the Parish Priest for the Parish.
