NAS Isle of Wight Branch/Group Code of Conduct

The aim of the National Autistic Society is to support people with autism and their families. As parents and carer's of people with autism, we volunteer our time to ensure that this support reaches our local area. To help ensure that everyone gets the most from our branch/group activities, we would appreciate it if you would read and comply with the following code of conduct.

What you can expect from your branch/group volunteers.

They will adopt the National Autistic Society's core values, policies and procedures and fairly represent the organization.

They will do all they can to create a safe and welcoming environment for all those attending the branch/group.

They will treat all other volunteers and branch/group members with respect. Any physical, emotional, verbal abuse or rudeness towards other volunteers or branch/group members will not be tolerated.

They will maintain confidentiality regarding the NAS, its employees, volunteers, branch/group members and its work.

They will be reliable. They will make it clear when and how they will be available and meet these expectations, or provide as much notice as possible if they cannot.

They will respond to queries within the agreed time limits. This includes acknowledging all event bookings.

They will listen to all branch/group member concerns and respond appropriately.

In return, we ask that all branch/group members –

Treat all volunteers and branch/group members with respect. Any physical, emotional, verbal abuse or rudeness towards volunteers or other branch/group members will not be tolerated.

Treat all branch/group property (including the venues they use) with respect and do not deliberately damage it.

Communicate with the branch/group volunteers. We ask that you tell us if you have any concerns and respond to our questions or queries within the agreed time limits. This includes ensuring that you pre-book for all events.

Supervise and be responsible for their children at all times. As a result, they must do all they can to ensure that their children also follow this code of conduct.

If a branch/group member fails to comply with the above they may be asked to leave the branch/group and will no longer be able to attend activities. Equally, if a branch/group member has concerns over the conduct of a volunteer, these should be raised with the branch officer/group leader or the branch support officer.

Please tick to confirm you have read and agree to the Code of Conduct.

PERMISSION FOR PHOTOGRAPHING AND FILMING YOUR CHILDREN

From time to time we take pictures and/or conduct video recordings during clubs and events. We would like your permission to use these pictures and video on our branch website/facebook page and in our newsletter. We will never reference your child by name or provide any specific information regarding your child. We also will never sell these pictures and videos; we will use them exclusively for National Autistic Society Isle of Wight branch purposes.

Please Tick if you give permission for National Autistic Society Isle of Wight to take photographs and use as stated above. This form covers all children listed on the form if there are any of the children listed you would rather not be photographed please state below
