Minerals and Waste Joint Plan

North Yorkshire County Council, City of York Council and the North York Moors National Park Authority are working together to produce a Minerals and Waste Joint Plan covering all three planning authority areas. When finalised the new Joint Plan will help the three authorities take decisions on planning applications for minerals and waste development up to 31 December 2030. A number of public consultations have already taken place to help develop the new Plan, including an 'Issues and Options' consultation in 2014 and a 'Preferred Options' consultation in 2015.

A final draft of the Joint Plan has now been prepared and is being published for a six week period to allow for representations to be made, before it is submitted for examination in public by an independent planning inspector. At this stage only representations relating to the legal compliance and soundness of the Joint Plan are required.

The formal publication period commences on Wednesday 9th November 2016 and will close on Wednesday 21st December 2016. All responses must be received by 5pm on that day.

The Joint Plan and supporting documents are available to view on the Joint Plan Website: www.northyorks.gov.uk/mwconsult.

Paper copies of the Joint Plan and main supporting documents, including a response form and guidance notes, are available to view during normal opening hours at all public libraries in the area covered by the Joint Plan, including mobile libraries and at all main offices of the three Authorities, as well as at District and Borough Council main offices and the National Park.
