Dear Friends,

I write this the morning after 5 members of our churches were confirmed in Portsmouth Cathedral. This was a very joyful occasion, followed by a welcome at St Catherine's at the United Service. Although we live in an increasingly secular country, we should be grateful that we have the freedom to declare our faith in Christ and meet as churches. Many people throughout the world do not enjoy this freedom. From China to the Middle East, from Pakistan to Russia, Christians find themselves restricted, harassed and downright persecuted for claiming the name of Christ.

This is upsetting, but, in a way, not surprising, if you look at the story of the first Christmas which we are looking forward to celebrating once again. The Christ Child was hardly born before he became a refugee, fleeing Herod's attempts to kill him by massacring all new born boys. When he grew up Jesus faced opposition from many, leading to eventual death on the cross.

On Jan 30th we will have a visit, at St Catherine's, from Mike Simpson, the CEO of the Foundation for Relief and Reconciliation in the Middle East. This is an organisation set up to support Christians in Iraq, who are some of the oldest churches in the world, yet who, following the Gulf War in 2003 have faced persecution from radical Islamist groups such as ISIS and have been driven from their land. He will show a film, 'Voices of Iraq' then lead in discussion. More information will be given out in early January. Do come and hear these voices and make up your own minds on the subject.

Before that we will have our full range of Advent/Christmas services from The Advent Carol Service at Holy Trinity on Dec 2nd, through the 'Light Up a Life' Mountbatten Hospice service on the 5th, the Carols by Candlelight on the 23rd and Christmas crib services and services of Holy Communion on Christmas night and Day. A special service this year will be held at Bonchurch Old Church at 3pm on Dec 30th.

Through all this I pray that we would learn once again the truth of the Christmas Carol and find Jesus' light in the darkness.

Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

A Happy Christmas to you all!

Your sincere friend and Vicar. Hugh

Ward House Memorial Service

On Friday November 9th Ward House Nursing Home held a simple but moving memorial service for residents who had passed away during the year. Each of them had known love and friendship at the home and each had passed away with dignity and very rarely alone. As each name was read out a poppy was placed on the memorial either by a relative or Gill, Hannah or me. There were also relatives of past residents, who are still considered part of the Ward House Family. It was an opportunity for them to reflect on their loved ones.

As ever a delicious tea was served, accompanied by Roger Holmes on the piano, and there was laughter to follow the tears.

Sally

The Tomb of the KNOWN Warriors.

At the Remembrance Day Service at St Catherine’s Church on November 11th, it was good to see a replica of the Tomb of the Unknown Warrior, very skilfully made, at the entrance to the church.

But how good it was to know that here in Ventnor every one of our 112 was a “Known Warrior”, and had had his name celebrated in one of the services held at the War Memorial in Ventnor Park over the last four years.

Knowing their names, their background, where they lived, how they earned their living, what relatives they left, and how they died, made these men into “Real People” in our minds, who once trod the same streets of Ventnor that we tread today.

So, a very big THANK YOU to the team at Ventnor British Legion and to all who supported their magnificent endeavours to celebrate each man’s life on the 100th anniversary of the month of his death. It was an act unique on our Island and possibly, anywhere else.

We DID remember them! Gill

THE CHERUB

Christmas is a lovely time, when Jesus Christ was born
Old Herod in his jealous rage regarded it with scorn.
That small city in the desert is holy ground indeed,
And the tiny, holy manger where animals would feed.

Bethlehem the golden, the golden built of love,
The golden was of Jesus from his heavenly home above,
How dusty was the desert as they crossed it hopefully
To register their names by law, as required to be.

Almost time for hosts of Angels and Cherubs born of love
To welcome Baby Jesus from his Heavenly home above.
Nativity, Nativity, there was wonder in the air,
That feeling of great glory and joy was everywhere

Time came at last for Jesus to arrive,
With singing of the Angels, and trumpets all alive.
Innocence and Holiness, purity, great love,
All these things He brought with Him from realms of Heaven above

One stable and one manger, in bare and humble grace
To utilise just as they wished in a poor, yet Heavenly place.
Love flowed so much that holy night in glorious ecstasy,
Every year at Christmas time we feel it...you and me.

We enact that glory every year, we remember glorious joy,
How Mary and her Joseph so loved their Baby Boy.
Yes, Christ-mass day, His birthday Jesus is His name.
He reigns for ever in our hearts, always and the same.

.....Ted.

LOVE AT CHRISTMAS

I am sure that many people experience a tingle of excitement as the Christmas season comes along. A tingle for different reasons.

For some : What will I get for Christmas? For others: what can I give for Christmas? Or in some cases, who will I see - if anybody at all - this Christmas? Yes, that last one is a bit of a stinker isn't it?

You would think it would not apply in this enlightened, modern world but the fact is, it does.....think about it!

Often it is because of lack of thought, Or perhaps plain ignorance of a situation. A personal visit of perhaps ten minutes could bring such a lot of pleasure to a lonely person.

I am very lucky, in fact I consider myself greatly blessed with my loving family always at hand I feel safe also by knowing that my friends and neighbours care too. But that's enough about me, let's get back to the point;

Time, Everyone is so busy at this time of year. Time means everything.

That old clock keeps ticking ever onward. "Watch out! Don't run out of time." Correction: time is not everything.... LOVE IS.

Do you remember the old 'Just William' books, By Richmal Crompton, when Violet Elizabeth would constantly sing: "love is all, love is all, love is all, love is all."... and William would say: "Oh shut up, Violet Elizabeth! "and she would say: "No, I will not thut up." (that is not a misprint, she had a lisp you see) And she did not thut up right through all the books. Love is all, love is all.... ad infinitum, - or so it seemed.

Violet Elizabeth was a very small child, aged six, but she could certainly talk and she would put William in his place when necessary even though she lisped.

She would say: "If you don't like me, William, I will thcweem and thcweem and thcweem until I am thick." I always understood every word she said and will happily translate on request.

A Happy Christmas, to you all, with love from Ted. XX

Smalls For All

Is a Scottish charity which collects and distributes underwear to women and children in African villages. Wearing a bra is a sign of wealth, status and power and can improve hygiene and prevent rape! If bras are too tatty the charity recycle the material and metal, raising money to buy new knickers for young girls - as some only have one pair or none at all. So let us have your old bras and we will send them on to the charity.

Bras can be donated in the Hub or at the back of church where there will be a collection box.

HAPPY
CHRISTMAS!

Read the Christmas
story in Luke 1:1 - 2:21

When Mary gave birth to Jesus she wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger. There were shepherds in a field nearby looking after their sheep. An angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them and they were terrified. The angel said, "Do not be afraid! Listen carefully, I bring you good news! Today your Saviour has been born, He is Christ the Lord."

Then an army of angels appeared praising God. When the angels left the shepherds hurried to Bethlehem, found Joseph and Mary and saw the baby lying in a manger.

God's Special Gift

For those of us about to spend Christmas with a new child or grandchild, we will know how very special the arrival of a baby is! This Christmas we celebrate again God's gift of Jesus: 'Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!' (2 Corinthians 9:15). What can we say about this baby?

He is God Himself:

The unthinkable has happened: God has become a human being! The eternal, creator God enters the world of time and space, both fully human and fully divine. This divine baby can bring hope to our messy world, because He has fully become part of it. He doesn't stand apart, but demonstrates a commitment to be with us and on our side in the midst of sin and suffering.

He is human like us:

Jesus fully engaged with the jungle of human experience. By His cross and resurrection, He can release us from the power of wrong, hurt and shame to secure for us a life of love, peace and forgiveness. Remember, the crib and cross are made of the same wood!

He is one with us:

In the coming of Jesus, God doesn't draw us simply into a cosmic event, but into a relationship. Just as you or I can hold and hug our children and grandchildren, so we have a God who wants to be intimately involved in our lives. As Emmanuel, 'God is with us' (Matt 1:23). Therefore, the question is: Are we with Him? Are we ready to make space for Him at the centre of our Christmas Celebrations this year?

'At Christmas time, when we receive presents we don't really need, God offers us a gift we cannot do without.' J John.
