S1: THE NEW LANGUAGE TOYS

Book by Sue Schwartz. ISBN 0-933149-73-5

If you are looking for inspiration on play activities which will help your child's language development, this may be the book for you. It is easy to read and explains how to use everyday toys to create activities that develop and improve language skills. It has lots of photographs. Parents and those working with a young child with language difficulties may find this book useful.

S2: TEACHING READING TO CHILDREN WITH DOWN'S SYNDROME - A GUIDE FOR TEACHERS AND PARENTS

by Patricia Logan Oelwein. ISBN 0-933149-55-7

An excellent resource by a very experienced practitioner. It gives lots of examples, including pages to photocopy of activities and emphasises the visual learning style that is most appropriate for children with Down syndrome. Teachers and Learning Support Assistants will find this useful as a reference book.

S3: CLASSROOM LANGUAGE SKILLS FOR CHILDREN WITH DOWN'S SYNDROME

Book by Libby Kumin. ISBN 1-890627-11-9

A large American reference book, similar to the one above. Libby, a leading expert on individuals with Down syndrome and their communication development, shares her expertise in this guide for parents, teachers and speech language therapists. The book explores the best strategies for adapting schoolwork, the curriculum, spoken instructions and classroom routines to meet the needs of pupils with Down syndrome. Samples of worksheets, checklists, visual prompts and an IEP are included.

S4: SPEECH AND LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DOWN SYNDROME - AN OVERVIEW

DSii booklet written by Sue Buckley.

An inspiring explanation of how children with Down syndrome learn to speak and the principles of effective intervention based on the fact that speech and language are central to the development of mental abilities such as thinking, reasoning and remembering, as well as to social inclusion. Definitely worth a read.

S5: SPEECH AND LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT FOR CHILDREN WITH DOWN SYNDROME (0-5 YEARS)

DSii booklet by Sue Buckley and Gillian Bird.

and

S6: SPEECH AND LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT FOR CHILDREN WITH DOWN SYNDROME (5-11) YEARS

DSii booklet by Sue Buckley and Gillian Bird

S7: SPEECH AND LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT FOR TEENAGERS WITH DOWN SYNDROME

DSii booklet by Sue Buckley and Gillian Bird.

These three booklets provide guidelines in the development of vocabulary, grammar, speech, sound production and interactive communication skills and activities to progress children's skills across all of these areas. We have sets of the checklists referred to in these booklets for you to use. Please note that these tick lists are for you to use with your child and do not need returning to the library.

S8: THE SOCIALLY SPEAKING GAME

The game teaches and reinforces important social skills through the fun of a board game.

S10: MEMORY DEVELOPMENT FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DOWN SYNDROME

DSii booklet by Sue Buckley and Gillian Bird.

This booklet helps you to understand visual memory and auditory memory and the phonological loop. There is evidence that there is a basic impairment in the functioning of this loop in children with Down syndrome. It discusses memory training, which will improve speech sound and word discrimination and improve spoken language abilities and working memory.

S11: DOWNSED LANGUAGE CARDS

Resource from DownsEd.

54 colour photographs to illustrate a selected set of first words. The words have been especially selected from lists provided by research studies of children's early language development. The vocabulary chosen can be used in a variety of ways to encourage language comprehension and production. The words include 35 nouns, 11 verbs and 8 words important for early one, two and three word communication. Words of one, two and three syllables are included to encourage speech and development at the same time. An instruction booklet provides ideas for a variety of activities and games to make learning fun for both teacher and child.

S12: DOWNSED CONSONANT SOUND CARDS

Resource from DownsEd.

The ability to hear speech sounds and to imitate them is essential for the development of clear speech. This pack includes 20 colour cards with picture prompts for 20 English consonant sounds to encourage children to listen and to imitate the sounds. A hand sign to be used as a prompt for each sound is illustrated on the reverse of each card. An instruction leaflet explains how to use the cards. This pack can be used from 10 months of age.

S13: DOWNSED PICTURE LOTTO

Resource from DownsEd.

A set of 18 cards illustrating first words with full colour photographs and 5 lotto base boards. The boards vary in size, providing the opportunity to start with two picture matching and then to progress to four and six. These materials can be used to play matching, selecting and naming games. Ideas for use are included.

S14: DOWNSED PICTURE DOMINOES

Resource from DownsEd.

Picture dominoes for picture matching and teaching vocabulary, made with 24 full colour photograph illustrations for first words. The dominoes come with instructions for playing 2 games and can also be used for matching and teaching vocabulary. The dominoes and lotto pictures are different picture examples of vocabulary used in the language cards to encourage children to generalise their understanding of early vocabulary. This pack can be used from 18 months of age.

S15: READING AND LANGUAGE DVD 1980s

DVD. Contains two films originally published in the 1980s featuring children aged 6 months to 8 years working with Sue Buckley at DownsEd.

S22: BERCOW REPORT- REVIEW OF SERVICES FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE (0-19) WITH SPEECH, LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION NEEDS

Government Report from 2008. This is an in depth review of the provision of speech & language therapy by John Bercow MP, and a suggested way forward.

S23: MAKING MUSIC WITH THE YOUNG CHILD WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Book by Elaine Streeter. ISBN 1-85302-960-2

This book shows how music can be used to encourage a child's development and also gives practical help and guidance for all levels from beginners onwards.

S25: HOW MUCH IS ENOUGH? SPEECH AND LANGUAGE THERAPY PROVISION FOR SCHOOL AGED CHILDREN WHO HAVE DOWN SYNDROME

Booklet by Leela Bakshi. Published by the Down Syndrome Association November 2006.

This booklet provides information for parents, schools, service planners and speech and language therapists about appropriate speech and language therapy for pupils with Down Syndrome.

S27: TEACH ME HOW TO SAY IT RIGHT - HELPING YOUR CHILD WITH ARTICULATION PROBLEMS

Book by Dorothy P. Dougherty. ISBN 1572244038

This is a good book for parents. Highly readable chapters cover communication, speech sounds, articulation, understanding and using words, literacy and phonological awareness with many clearly explained activities to put into practise with your child. It is not specifically written for children with Down syndrome but is very relevant since it explains how speech develops and what can go wrong and research shows that most children with Down syndrome go through the same stages of speech development as typically developing children - just at a slower rate.

S28: DISCOVERY - PATHWAYS TO BETTER SPEECH FOR CHILDREN WITH DOWN SYNDROME.

DVD by Will Schermerhorn . ISBN 0974807141

Will is the father of Mason, born in the year 2000 with Down syndrome. His first film was, "Down syndrome: The First 18 Months". This film features Prof. Sue Buckley and Libby Kummin discussing many issues around speech, communication, hearing, sign, vocabulary, reading. It also features many children with Down syndrome and I found it inspiring, reassuring and truly wonderful to watch.

S29: DVD - DEVELOPMENT IN PRACTICE - SPEECH AND LANGUAGE ACTIVITIES FOR PRESCHOOL CHILDREN WITH DOWN SYNDROME DVD.

A DownsEd production which demonstrates activities for promoting communication, speech and language for preschool children with Down syndrome from 18 months to 4 years. Features the early intervention groups that run at DownsEd.

S30: IMPROVING THE COMMUNICATION OF PEOPLE WITH DOWN SYNDROME

Book by Jon F Miller. ISBN: 1557663505

This book provides a framework for assessing and treating speech, language and communication problems in children and adults with Down syndrome. An excellent resource for families of people with Down syndrome.

S31: COMMUNICATION SKILLS IN CHILDREN WITH DOWN SYNDROME - A GUIDE FOR PARENTS

Book by Libby Kumin. ISBN: 0933149530

This book provides parents with a wealth of information about speech and language development in children with Down syndrome. Parents learn what to expect as communication skills progress from infancy through to early adolescence, how Down syndrome can affect those skills and what they can do to help maximize their child's potential in this crucial area of development.

S33: DVD "WHAT DID YOU SAY?" A GUIDE TO SPEECH INTELLIGIBILITY IN PEOPLE WITH DOWN SYNDROME

This DVD is written and produced by Libby Kumin, a renowned expert on speech and language skills in people with Down syndrome. She founded the Down Syndrome Centre for Excellence in Maryland, USA where she works extensively with families and professionals through presentations and workshops. She is active in research issues for infants, toddlers, children, adolescents, and adults with Down syndrome. This DVD features Libby explaining the most common difficulties underlying speech intelligibility problems in Down syndrome: structure of mouth, oral motor skills, articulation, sequencing and combining sounds into words, dysfluencies, rate and volume of speaking, turn taking, start/end conversations, eye contact, gestures, the list goes on! The DVD does not tell you how to treat these problems but helps you to understand what they are and that they can be treated. The last 20 minutes of the DVD discusses what needs to be on a child's IEP (individual education plan) to address speech intelligibility. Highly recommended viewing for parents, teaching staff and speech therapists working with children who have Down syndrome. We also have several books in the library by Libby Kumin - S3, S31 & S37.

S34: LET'S SIGN DICTIONARY AND SIGNS

Book (spiral bound) by Cath Smith ISBN: 0954238435

A collection of line drawings of signs with additional material developed with British sign language tutors.

S36: CD - LISTEN, SING, SNAP, CLAP

A music CD created to facilitate phonic awareness.

Catchy tunes paired with well known rhymes are used to encourage listening for special sounds and rhymes and to encourage singing using your best singing voice! For example London Bridge is Falling Down works on the letter sound "L".

S37: EARLY COMMUNICATION SKILLS FOR CHILDREN WITH DOWN SYNDROME

Book by Libby Kumin. ISBN 978-1890627270

Libby, who has worked with hundreds of children with Down syndrome over the last 23 years explains articulation, phonology, speech intelligibility, speech assessments and treatments using language that is easy to read and understand. This book offers guidance and checklists on evaluating and treating speech problems and lots of home based activities to help speech sounds develop.

The Communication Link Project was initially based at Beverley School for the deaf in Middlesbrough. They produced this in depth Dictionary of line drawings of Signs which can be used by anyone interested in learning sign language.

S47: Q & A CARDS - MINI MYSTERIES FUN DECK

Resource produced by Super Duper publications.

A great activity for practicing conversation. The Mini -Mysteries Fun Deck has 56 illustrated cards. One side shows a picture and question eg 'What is Marla painting?'. The reverse has clues to give to the child to help answer the question.

S48: LDA Language Cards - Why? Because

Resource by LDA. Children will enjoy working with the 20 pairs of cards illustrating cause and effect, e.g. card 1A shows an ambulance whizzing down the street, and card 1B shows a lady injured from falling off her bike. The cards are designed to improve listening and critical thinking skills, and to develop spoken language.

S49 DEVELOPING ORAL-MOTOR & FEEDING SKILLS IN THE DOWN SYNDROME POPULATION.

These 6 DVDs focus on the development of oral motor & feeding skills in the Down syndrome population from birth to adulthood. An overview of therapeutic intervention strategies to prevent long term feeding problems is also included.

S54 & S55: FOOTBALL PHONICS 1 & 2

Resource.

Two tins of circular shaped cards with a football theme. The first pack contains cards on initial letter sounds and CVC sounds. Six games that are fun and quick to play. The second tin is similar to the first but works on initial and final consonant clusters sl, tr, gl, ng, nt.

S57: CONVERSTATION - BOARD GAME

Resource.

A multiuse game for adults and children to improve functional and social communication. This is basically a board game with cards to turn over. The cards cover who, what, where, when, how do you..., If..., I could..., The board can easily be used for other speech and language word card games.

S58: SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DOWN SYNDROME -AN OVERVIEW

DSii booklet by Sue Buckley, Gillian Bird and Ben Sacks.

Social development includes social interactive skills with both children and adults, social understanding and empathy, friendships, play and leisure skills, personal and social independence and socially appropriate behaviour. Each of these areas of development are discussed, drawing on the available research literature.

S60: READING AND WRITING FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DOWN SYNDROME - AN OVERVIEW

DSii booklet by Sue Buckley.

Reading ability is a strength for children with Down syndrome due to their good visual memory skills. Reading and being involved in supported reading and writing influences speech, language and memory skills. This booklet reports recent research and it's implications for teaching strategies.

S61: READING AND WRITING DEVELOPMENT FOR CHILDREN WITH DOWN SYNDROME (0 - 5) YEARS

DSii booklet by Sue Buckley.

and

S63: READING AND WRITING DEVELOPMENT FOR TEENAGERS WITH DOWN SYNDROME (11-16) YEARS

These three booklets explain how language and literacy teaching can work together to promote the development of children with Down syndrome. Guidance on teaching methods, expectations and examples of children's work combine to show teachers and parents how to include children in literacy learning programmes.

S64 SEE AND LEARN SPEECH PROGRAMME

The first two steps in the See and Learn Speech Program: Playing with Sounds and Putting Sounds Together is now available to loan from our library.

Playing with sounds includes 41 sound cards, (23 consonants & 18 vowels) and a detailed guide on how to deliver the activities. The sound cards are all pictures of objects which begin with the chosen letter sound, d for drum, m for mouse. The first activity is a listening activity - children listen to the sounds as you hold up the card, the next focuses on hearing - the child has to hear the difference between two different sounds as you hold up two cards and say one of the sounds. The third activity is a speech production activity. You hold up the card and say the sound and encourage the child to have a go at verbalising it. The resource can be used from 6 months upwards.

www.see-and-learn.org or ready to use kits can be purchased.

R25: SEE AND LEARN - FIRST WORD PICTURES

The first step in the See and Learn Language and Reading programme. First Word Pictures is designed for children who are at the first stage of learning language. It contains activities and resources to help children learn 60 common first words using pictures. This step also prepares children for learning to read by helping them develop their visual skills through matching and selecting activities.

R26: SEE AND LEARN - FIRST WRITTEN WORDS

The second step in the See and Learn Language and Reading programme uses reading as a support to language development introducing 16 written words and 34 two key word phrases.

R27: SEE AND LEARN - MORE WORD PICTURES

The third step in the See and Learn Language and Reading programme teaches a further 55 words using pictures with matching and selecting activities.

R28: SEE AND LEARN - FIRST SENTENCES

The fourth step in the See and Learn Language and Reading programme uses reading as a support to language development. Specially developed reading activities use written word cards and picture cards to encourage your child to develop 'sight' reading of 16 new written words. These written words are then used in four books illustrating a variety of sentences with three 'key' content words. Sentence cards and matching photos will help your child get extra practice reading, understanding, and producing sentences with three 'key' content words.

Book by W Cohen, L Nadel, M E Madrick.. ISBN 978-0471418153

An enlightening book providing comprehensive and up to date treatment of issues, such as - health and clinical care, family life, psychosocial issues, self determination, education and inclusion, self advocacy and recent research developments.

EX10: ADVENTURES IN THE MAINSTREAM-COMING OF AGE WITH DOWN SYNDROME.

Book by Greg Palmer. ISBN 1890627305.

Greg is Ned's dad and for his 21st birthday they have set off on a cruise around the British Isles. Ned is crossing the border from "cute kid" to "difficult adult" and his dad shares the pleasure, fear, challenge and above all his love and pride as Ned joins the big, wild mainstream world of money, strangers and responsibility. Definitely worth a read by all parents.

EX11: TALES OF NORMANSFIELD - THE LANGDON DOWN LEGACY

By Andy Merriman. ISBN 0-9555228-0-3

This book charts the history of the hospital founded by Langdon Down in 1868. The book contains personal accounts by patients, letters from parents and relatives, photographs and interviews with staff members. The language used to describe people with Down syndrome at the time may be very insulting to parents but serves as a reminder as to how far we have come on our journey of acceptance, inclusion and education for people with learning disabilities.

EX12: UP CLOSE, A MOTHER'S VIEW

Book by Fiona Yaron-Field. ISBN 978-1593730673

This DVD starts by outlining why it is so important that children with Down syndrome are included in mainstream schools. It features 5 children with Down syndrome working in schools in the Portsmouth area and looks at planning for entry, whole school preparation, and developing early number, literacy and language skills. It also covers the importance of friendships and how to encourage and support positive behaviour and independence by promoting social understanding and using social stories, eg, the sentence "I will do good sitting today" and a picture of the child performing that task. Such methods work with the strengths of children with Down syndrome. This DVD is highly recommended to all parents and professionals living and working with a child who has Down syndrome. At just 75 minutes playing time it would work particularly well for an in set training day.
