

Peppard Flat Earth and Anti-Computer Society

Founded circa 1975 as a development of the committee of the Friends of Peppard School after the Centenary Fayre

Aims - To establish the rectilinear aspects of the Earth and the complete uselessness of computers as witnessed through the bottom of a glass vessel.

Meetings - If convened by the Pedagogue, Fridays at three bells of the First Watch.

For further information contact Terry Ryan on 01491629958 or tryan123@btinternet.com.

The societies website is: www.theflatearthsociety.org/home/