Peasmarsh Playspace

After many years of struggling to raise funds to improve or replace the Playspace at the Maltings, Peasmarsh at last has a sparkling new play area for the younger children in the village, thanks very largely to generous support from the Parish Council, and the determined efforts of a very small Recreation Ground Committee which refused to give up !

It is open for use, and is already being enjoyed - both by the younger children and by the "young at heart" who have been trying out the adult exercise equipment.

We shall be celebrating with a formal "Opening Party" later in the year when it will be nicer to be outside, but in the meanwhile, please use it, enjoy it, respect it. (put your litter in the bin !) and be grateful to all those who have worked hard to make it happen.

The Work goes on with a JUMBLE SALE at the Memorial Hall on Saturday March 17th. 12 noon to 3pm to raise funds for a facelift for the pavilion. The hall will be open from 6pm – 7.30 on Friday 16th for you to drop off your "jumble".
