Peasmarsh Memorial Hall
Refurbishment Project

“Good bye Old Hall !” “Good luck New Hall !”
This was the message from the Brownies and Guides holding their last meetings in the old hall.

Everyone can see that work has already started on the necessary demolition to make way for the refurbishment. From now on monthly bulletins in this newsletter will not be necessary.

But the PP has taken on a life of its own and is fast becoming a favourite means of communication within the village. Please continue to send your news, publicity for events in the village, appeals, or any other items of interest to Mary Hitchins at peasmarshvillagevoice@hotmail.co.uk or Jenny Als at jals@millwood324.fsnet.co.uk.

After eighteen months of faithful delivery, this is a good moment to say a heartfelt thank you to the 12 volunteers who make sure you get your “periodical”, come rain, come shine, and to the village organisations which sponsor it – the Parish Council, the Memorial Hall Committee, the Recreation Ground Committee and the Friends of Peasmarsh Parish Church.

Electing a Police and Crime Commissioner.

.This election will take place on Thursday, November 15th.

Due to the fact that the Memorial Hall will not be available the Polling Station for Peasmarsh will be the Sports Pavilion at the Recreation Ground, The Maltings.

Please take the trouble to go and cast your vote for a Commissioner for Sussex.

Advance Notice

A Candlelit Christmas Carol Service will be held in Peasmarsh Church this year on Sunday, December 16th at 7.00pm

A big, big thank you to all those Peasmarsh Residents, who responded to the article in the October Periodical, and filled Christmas shoeboxes for poor families and elderly people living in Romania, Moldova, Albania, Bulgaria and The Ukraine.

Once again Peasmarsh Primary School also responded generously to the appeal.

Sue Cavilla, on behalf of the Charity Link Romania, would like to express her gratitude to the Peasmarsh people, the children, staff and parents at the School and to Mr McMillan for their support.

Together with shoeboxes from Playden School, Iden and Playden Churches, there was a fantastic total of 88 shoeboxes - 25 more boxes than last year! Wonderful !

What an amazing way of celebrating the true meaning of Christmas

Graves at Peasmarsch

The task of recording the graves at Peasmarsch is now about $\frac{3}{4}$ completed. When finalised it will show, so far as is readable, Names (with surnames arranged in alphabetical order), first Christian name and initials, date of birth and date of death.

This will be accompanied by directions for finding the grave.

It is also hoped to include a synoptic biography.

Do you have an ancestor, relation or even an old friend at rest in the churchyard whose details you would like to record? Sometimes we are able to get this information from the headstone but it would be a pity to miss this opportunity. It would have to be within a few words such as , "Schoolmaster at Peasmarsch 1909-1928" or "Lollypop Lady"

If you do please contact me on robin.dent@talktalk.net or by post to Beeches, Off Main Street, Peasmarsch TN31 6SX. Thank you. Robin Dent.

Don't Forget

Sing for Fun is back !

Singing is good for you !

Come along to the pavilion and

Peasmarsch Parish Council

While the Memorial Hall is being rebuilt the Parish Council will be meeting in the lounge at Flackley Ash Hotel as there is no room for them at the pavilion on a Tuesday evening.

The Council meets at 7.30pm on the first Tuesday of the month and members of the public are welcome to attend and have the opportunity to speak or ask questions if they wish.

The Council is grateful to the Management of the Hotel for this hospitality.

Armistice Day falls

on a Sunday this year.

The Remembrance Day Service is always a very special one at Peasmarsch.

Join us at 9.45am as we "remember them" with our own WW veterans.

A big thank you to Kevin and Carol for laying on another splendid free fireworks display at The Cock Inn to celebrate Bonfire Night

Sadly this was the final time (and probably the best) that this much enjoyed event in Peasmarsch will be staged by Kevin and Carol and it will be greatly missed by all
