North West England The Fairtrade Fortnight 'Flagship Event' for our area will be at 5.30 on Tuesday 25 Feb, at the Old Bank, which is near Manchester Victoria Station, at M44AH. It will be a panel discussion lasting about an hour, and at least one of the panellists will be a Fairtrade producer. The aim is to "share inspiring stories of women in cocoa, the impact of Fairtrade and the ongoing challenges for women in West Africa." I'll be there. Hope you can make it too!
