Recruitment opens for police officers this August

Is becoming a police officer your dream? Now is your chance to apply. Recruitment has opened to join Sussex Police as a police officer. As a police officer you will work where you're most needed, prioritising the areas where communities face the greatest challenges. The role of a police constable is a unique job that makes a real difference in the community. Additional officers will increase visibility and accessibility, helping to solve local community issues such as anti-social behaviour.

The application window for police constables opens on Monday, 30 July and will remain open until midnight Wednesday 15 August.

To find out about why becoming a police officer might be the job for you.

Do you know who this man is?

Police are seeking the identity of this man after he allegedly spat at a bus driver in Horsham.

The bus driver was driving a Metro bus by the Park and Ride near Worthing Road, Horsham, around 5.25pm on Friday, 22 June when a man knocked on his window.

Despite the bus not being stopped at a designated bus stop, the man asked to be let onto the bus but the driver said no.

The man – described as medium build, in his late 20s and wearing an orange jacket - then spat at the driver through his open window and walked off.

If you recognise this man or were on the 98 bus at this time and on this day then please report any information to Sussex Police either online or by calling 101 quoting reference 1127 of 22/06.
